Government Goes To Bat For Idaho Spud

By JOSEPH BENHAM

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—The United States government has risen to the defense of the Idaho potato, but whether the good name of Idaho's most famous product has been restored remains to be seen.

However, the Chilean guvernment now knows that criticism of U.S. farm produce does not pass unnoticed.

The Chilean government Agriculture Commerce Agency had described a 700-ton shipment of potatoes as unfit for human consumption, and Duncan set out to prove this wasn't so.

Later the agency amended its complaint to say that the main objection to the potatoes was they were twice as big as the variety to which Chilean housewives are accustomed.

At last Friday's evening meeting, Duncan spoke glowingly of the highlights of U.S. potatoes, particularly the variety known as Idaho when it is baked.

Duncan held up a pan of fried potatoes, still sizzling from the boiling oil in which they had been cooking during his statement, and said he would prove that they were fit for human consumption by eating some. He did.

NATO Aides Hear Brandt's Warning

By ARTHUR L. GAVSHON

PARIS (AP)—Foreign and defense ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization met without France today and heard a warning from Foreign Minister Willy Brandt of West Germany that cracks in the alliance could provoke the Soviet Union into a fatal miscalculation. Making his first appearance in allied councils, Brandt told NATO's "defense planning committee" that a first-rate crisis within the Western camp could lead Moscow to misinterpret the West's basic unity.

The "defense planning committee" is a euphemism for NATO minus France, a situation arising from President Charles de Gaulle's withdrawal from the integrated military structure.

Brandt, referring to the recent study of defense needs by U.S., British and West German *officials, conceded that an at*tack by the Soviet Union is not now likely, but he warned that it is also not impossible.

The ministers were meeting to put the planning and management of their nuclear defense in the hands of an inner-core group of six or seven nations.

At Thursday's NATO meeting, Rusk is expected to call on America's allies for greater backing of the war effort in Vietnam.

British sources reported Brown went into considerable detail over prospects of enlist-

Meet Called To Organize Lobby Group

GOODING—A meeting to organize a "people's lobby" has been called for 8 p.m. Saturday in the Gooding War Memorial Hall by a group of former Magic Valley state legislators.

Don Fredericksen, Gooding, one of the signers of a letter publicizing the meeting, points out that "people back home need to be personally informed as to the progress of the legislative session."

"We believe that your local interests should be represented in Boise by an active and influential lobby," the letter states. Efforts toward forming the lobby association have been completely bi-partisan, Fredericksen said. Emphasis has been designed to appeal to the practical businessman, rancher and farm operator.

"We feel that if the admitted inequities of the salestax are to be amended from the bill, if any future tax relief is to be accomplished, if any serious effort is made to hold state spending within the limits of the growth of our Idaho economy; if these and similar constructive conservative policies are to be accomplished, then it is necessary that a "people's lobby" be organized before the next legislature meets, he said.

Signers of the letter, in addition to Fredericksen, include Fred Walton, Ira Klstler, Ward Mills and William Pyle.

Directors In 3 Districts Are Elected

Directors were elected Tuesday in three irrigation districts throughout Magic Valley, including Milner, King Hill and Burley.

Julius E. Newman, Milner, was re-elected without opposition as a director of the Milner Low Lift Irrigation District. He received a total of 68 votes, according to Earl D. Sears, secretary-manager of the district. Votes will be canvassed Monday.

Two directors were elected for the King Hill Irrigation District. Carl Carnahan, got 52 votes in district 1, while John Pachner polled 69 votes in district 4. Blaine Steel got 27 write-in votes.

C. E. Stanger, View, and A. L. Holyoak, Stars Ferry, were re-elected directors of the Burley Irrigation District. Stanger received 117 votes, defeating Jacob Kershisnik, who polled 47. Holyoak polled 92 while Vaughn Hobson got 67 and Grant Beck 2 write-in votes.

Coppolino Takes Stand To Testify

FREEHOLD, N.J. (AP)—Dr. Carl Coppolino took the witness stand today and calmly testified that the man he is accused of strangling was in the throes of a heart attack when he last saw him alive.

Coppolino, a 34-year-old anesthesiologist, said he was *summoned to the home of his al*leged victim, retired Army Lt. Col. William E. Farber, by the colonel's wife, Marjorie, early on the morning of Farber's death.

The dark-haired doctor said his first examination of Farber indicated the colonel was suffering from some kind of a "coronary episode." Farber, 50, was pale, sweating and gasping for air, Coppolino told his murder trial jury.

After administering several emergency drugs, Coppolino said he pleaded with the Farbers to summon an ambulance to take the colonel to a hospital.

Swiss President Elected For 1967

The election was a formality. The presidency rotates each year among the seven members of Switzerland's Federal Council.

Huge Voter Turnout Indicates Spain Approves Of Changes

By HAROLD K. MILKS

MADRID, Spain (AP)—A huge turnout of voters today indicated that Spain was approving liberalized constitutional changes proposed by Generalissimo Francisco Franco. It was only the second national vote in the 27 years of his dictatorship. With half of the 19,320,877 registered voters balloting within four hours after the polls opened, jubilant officials said the heavy vote indicated support for Franco's amendments. Some said these will open the door to a future democratic monarchy. The officials based their optimism on the fact that the badly organized opposition has urged voters to boycott the election.

Franco appeared in good humor as he cast his ballot. When photographers asked him to repeat the act so they could get more pictures, he smiled and said: "What, you want me to vote more than once?"

With formal opposition muzzled, government officials predicted 80 per cent of the vote would favor the changes, the first major sign of relaxation of control by the 74-year-old dictator.

Each of the country's more than 19 million eligible voters was provided in advance with a ballot marked "yes" — and a blank one if he wanted to vote no.

Some abstentions were expected. Government employes, who got four hours off, were subject to a 1 per cent withholding tax unless they voted.

Franco's proposals, approved Nov. 22 by the Cortes, call for:

—A king or a royal regent to succeed Franco on his death or retirement.

—Separation of the posts of head of state and of government, both now held by the generalissimo.

—Reducing the 594-member Cortes by 30 members, adding 100 directly elected members and reducing the number appointed by the chief of state from 50 to 25.

—Permitting public religious services for faiths other than state-supported Roman Catholicism.

—Boosting the powers of the Council of the Realm, now an inactive advisory group and its membership from 13 to 17 members, 10 of whom may be elected by the Cortes.

The constitution, however, continues to ban opposition political parties, a provision the government utilized to shut off open campaigning against Franco's proposals while mounting a massive propaganda drive urging voters to support them.

Schools Seek Director To Study Center

Twin Falls School District No. 411 is actively soliciting the services of a planning director to study the value and potential of establishing a learning center at Herrett's Planetarium and Museum of Arts and Sciences.

Dr. E. H. Ragland, superintendent, said Wednesday that "the planetarium and museum have attracted much interest among school people of Magic Valley and it has been suggested by many people that the Herrett collection may well justify further encouragement and expansion as a learning center."

The director's position will be financed from a planning grant under Title III, Public Law 89-10. The director's employment would take effect as soon as possible and would last for nine months.

"The salary will be good and will compare approximately with that paid junior high or elementary school principals," Dr. Ragland said.

No specific requirements for the position have been set, he added, but a public school educator would be preferred.

"We feel that it is a most challenging and interesting assignment and competent consultants can and will be secured and representatives of school communities throughout the Magic Valley will participate in the planning," he said.

TEST RESCHEDULED

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission announced today an underground nuclear test of intermediate yield—which could be the largest of this kind in U.S. history—has been rescheduled for Dec. 21.

Legislators, T.F. Residents Discuss Upcoming Session

Twin Falls County residents had an opportunity Tuesday afternoon to express their opinions and desires concerning the upcoming legislative sessions during private 20-minute sessions with their legislators at the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce.

Discussion ranged from municipal problems and the inventory-tax-to-the-school situation and "agricultural" problems, according to Ray Rostron, chamber manager.

The sessions are held in an effort to provide citizens an opportunity to talk privately with members of their county legislative delegation. The arrangement is beneficial both for the citizens and the legislators, Mr. Rostron said, and saves time for both parties.

More than 50 people met with the legislative delegation during the afternoon.

Tickets Scarce

Approximately 40 tickets for the Republican Victory Dinner Wednesday night at the American Legion Hall still were available at noon Wednesday, according to L. James Koutnik, chairman of the event.

The dinner, set for 7:30 p.m., is held in honor of all Idaho Republican winners in the November election, from constables to governor. Main speakers include Gov.-elect Don Samuelson; Rep. George Hansen, Sen. Len B. Jordan and Rep.-elect James McClure.

Tickets may be obtained from Republican County and precinct chairmen, as well as at the American Legion Hall. A few tickets also will be sold at the door, Mr. Koutnik said.

Population Control Noted As Problem

WASHINGTON (AP) — McGeorge Bundy, president of the Ford Foundation, said today the federal government should pay more attention to problems of family planning and population control.

The commitments of the foundation "have demonstrated to us," he said, "that no service is more needed and none is more relevant to the improvement of the quality of life among the poor.

"We entirely agree with those who warn against coercion of any kind in this field (birth control). But we hold strongly to the view that the withholding of information and the failure to provide effective service is in itself a form of prejudgment of what the people themselves will choose."

Bundy testified before a Senate Government Operations subcommittee conducting a series of hearings on problems of the urban poor.

He urged, as he has previously, the additional federal taxes be levied for federal programs designed to alleviate the problems of the cities.

PROGRESS REPORTED

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department reports progress in U.S.-Soviet talks on a treaty to ban the spread of nuclear weapons. But a spokesman said important issues remain to be resolved.

James Roosevelt Resigns Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ambassador James Roosevelt, oldest son of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, has resigned as U. S. representative to the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations.

The former California congressman's resignation, for personal reasons, is effective Thursday, the White House said.

Mansfield Wants U.S. To Propose 45-Day War Truce

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield wants the United States to propose a 45-day or longer truce in Vietnam for the purpose of negotiations. But two of his Southern colleagues counter that the war should be stepped up. The Montana Democrat's comments were among a series made on Vietnam strategy Tuesday. Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. ambassador to South Vietnam, would say nothing about the war as he returned for Christmas and a talk with President Johnson.

Mansfield, long a foe of stepped-up military effort, said the United States should offer a "cease-fire and stand-fast" from Christmas through mid-February in hopes of getting North Vietnamese leaders to negotiate a settlement of the war.

He urged bombing of 75 more military targets in North Vietnam, but admitted, "I don't think I've changed the President's mind."

Stennis told a dinner audience in Jackson, Miss., that a Johnson request for $10 billion in additional war funds this fiscal year would be inadequate. The President has estimated his request of Congress next month might be about $9 billion to $10 billion in supplemental funds.

Stennis urged an all-out military effort and said "much bloody fighting lies ahead and it may take years to win a complete military victory. These guerrillas are far from being defeated."

Barry Goldwater, the 1964 GOP presidential candidate, told a New York news conference he advocates sealing the North Vietnam port of Haiphong by sinking vessels in the harbor channel leading to the harbor. He said he is considering visiting Vietnam early next year.

Deficit Won't Reduce Much With Cutback

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's announced plans to cut back on federal spending up to next July 1 — $3.3 billion in long-term programs and $3 billion in immediate outlays — won't reduce the budget deficit by anything like those amounts.

Actual budgeted spending for the remaining half of this 1967 fiscal year will be cut by less than $2 billion, official sources indicated today.

And most of those savings represent outlays — merely deferred for anti-inflationary reasons until after next July 1. They will show up as spending in the fiscal 1968 budget.

An Associated Press canvass of each department and agency listed for reductions by Johnson in his Nov. 30 news conference produced no claim that any approved federal construction project would actually be canceled.

The major aim was to curb rising price-wage pressures, officials emphasized.

'Astrobugs' Aim Spaceward To Determine Human Safety

By JIM STROTHMAN
AP Aerospace Writer

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Packed inside a beehive-shaped capsule, thousands of tiny "astrobugs" aim spaceward today to orbit earth 74 hours so scientists can learn if it is safe for humans to take distant trips to planets.

Perched on the tip of a sleek Delta rocket, the wasps, fruit flies, beetles and other living specimens blast off between 2:20 p.m. and 3:20 p.m. EST as the opening shot in America's $100-million "bring-'em-back-alive" biosatellite program.

Goal of the program is to test how radiation and weightlessness in space affects the growth of plants and animals, structure of body cells and basic biochemistry.

After 47 orbits, Biosatellite 1 was to fire a retrorocket about 5 p.m. Saturday and parachute to earth. Aircraft are scheduled to catch the falling capsule over the Pacific Ocean and fly the specimens to Hawaii for analysis.

Mutations which develop in the creatures will help biologists conclude what effect a similar environment would have had on men living in space for long periods, such as on a journey to the planets.

Information on how the wheat seed and pepper plants grow in weightlessness — without gravity to pull roots downward — may some day assist colonists on the moon or astronauts on extended space missions who have to grow their own food.

Bill Moyers Resigns Post At Capitol

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bill D. Moyers said today he is resigning as President Johnson's press secretary to become publisher and chief operating officer of the Long Island newspaper Newsday.

Moyers also announced the impending resignation of a second $30,000-a-year Johnson aide, Jake Jacobson, who has been serving as the President's legislative counsel. Jacobson will return to private law practice in Austin, Tex.

Moyers said he will be succeeded as press secretary by 39-year-old George Christian, who joined the White House staff last May after being press secretary to Democratic Gov. John Connally of Texas.

Moyers will leave the White House Feb. 1, when Christian will take over his duties.

Moyers, the most prominent member of the White House inner circle since the resignation earlier this year of Jack Valenti, said his resignation was prompted by "reasons of personal family obligations."

Moyers said-Moyers, will "leave sometime after the first of the year."

Congress To Have Built-In Work Load

WASHINGTON (AP) — Decisions affecting the future of 19 major and controversial laws expiring next June 30 will give the new Congress a built-in load of work when it meets Jan. 10.

Among the big ones which will die in midyear unless extended are the draft law, the Reciprocal Trade Act and the antipoverty program.

They are likely to cause the most controversy and to dim hopes for an early adjournment, for, added to them, will be new legislation to be proposed by the President, including increases in Social Security benefits and perhaps a tax boost.

The President's authority to induct young men into military service has been extended periodically, the most recent extension having been for five years. There is wide disagreement among congressmen over what form the next extension should take. The House Armed Services Committee already has started preliminary work on a new draft law and will make it its first order of business.

British Don't Want Tight Oil Embargo

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Britain sought today to dissuade African members of the U.N. Security Council from pressing for a tight oil embargo of Rhodesia which could only be enforced by a naval blockade of all of Southern Africa.

Britain's Lord Caradon asked for urgent consultation with the Africans after Uganda introduced amendments Tuesday to a British resolution calling for mandatory sanctions against 12 Rhodesian exports.

The amendments call on Britain to "prevent by all means the transport to Southern Rhodesia of oil or oil products."

British Foreign Secretary George Brown told the 15-nation council last week his government would consider applying a limited oil embargo. Britain had in mind, however, a ban that would affect only Rhodesia and not involve a confrontation with Portugal and South Africa, which is Britain's fourth biggest trading partner.

Bean Prices Will Be Aired At Meet

The sagging bean price of 1966 caused by a nationwide bumper crop will be discussed when representatives of the Idaho bean industry gather Friday in Twin Falls.

Harold West, Idaho Bean Commission executive director, said in Boise last week that a closer look at future programs will have to be taken because of the current low market price, recent bean diseases and other problems.

Mr. West said anyone interested in the state's bean industry is invited to attend the half-day conference.

SHOPPING DAYS TO CHRISTMAS

H. Clampitt, 71, Dies Of Long Illness

He was born May 1, 1895, at Stillwater, Okla. He came to Twin Falls five years ago from Bliss where he had been engaged in farming until his retirement.

He is survived by one son, Don Clampitt, Salt Lake City; one daughter, Mrs. Marie Pescador, Tappenish, Wash.; two brothers, Glenn Clampitt, Twin Falls, and Earl Clampitt, Oregon City, Ore.; four sisters, Mrs. Elmer Annis, Twin Falls, and LaVern Clampitt, Mrs. Dorothy Stone and Mrs. Stella Smith, all Oregon City.

Graveside services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Thursday at Twin Falls Cemetery by Capt. George Driver of the Salvation Army. The cortege will leave Reynolds Funeral Chapel at 10:15 a.m. Thursday.

No Spirit

Mr. Marx, who resides in a cabin at Graceman Auto Courts, told Twin Falls City Police officers he had put the $100 bills in Christmas cards and left them on a table while he was at work.

When he returned about 8:30 p.m., the door to the cabin had been jimmied and the Christmas presents to his sons were gone. The burglar also walked off with Mr. Marx's wallet, containing about $84.

Ike Reported As 'Doing Well'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, doing well after removal of his gall bladder, may be home for Christmas at Gettysburg, Pa.

At least that's the hope expressed for him by authorities at Walter Reed Army Hospital, where he underwent surgery Monday.

Brig. Gen. Philip W. Mallory, commander of the hospital, told newsmen Tuesday that Eisenhower got out of bed in the forenoon, walked to a chair and sat for 25 minutes.

Weather, Temperatures

MAGIC VALLEY—Partly cloudy today. Increasing clouds tonight followed by partial clearing Thursday. Areas of valley fog tonight and Thursday morning. Precipitation probability 10 per cent. Wind 12 to 20 miles per hour today subsiding by evening. Temperatures at 8 a.m.: 34 at Jerome, 38 at Kimberly with 82 per cent humidity, 38 at T. F. with 78 per cent humidity, 35 at Rupert, 27 at Fairfield, 22 at Hailey, 38 at Buhl, 31 at Castleford, 34 at Gooding; at noon, 40 at T. F. Weather Bureau with 78 per cent humidity. Barometer: 30.35.

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY

A weak cold front moved through Southern Idaho last night accompanied by rain in the lower valleys and snow at higher elevations. Somewhat cooler and drier air spreading through the area behind the front has brought a clearing trend today.

Considerable sunshine is expected this afternoon and Thursday. Not much change is expected in the afternoon temperatures, but tonight will be colder than last night. However, some cloudiness is expected over the area during the night and this should prevent as much cooling as otherwise would occur. Temperatures are forecast to drop into the teens in eastern valleys and into the 20s in the west. Some of the higher valleys will likely drop to zero or below. Local areas of valley fog may be expected to develop during the night and continue into the early forenoon.

FIVE-DAY FORECAST

The next five days will be a little warmer and drier than normal in this area. The prevailing pressure pattern will feature a ridge of high pressure over the Western States with a pressure trough over the eastern Pacific and low pressure centered in the western Gulf of Alaska. Temperatures Thursday through Monday will average three to eight degrees above normal, varying from day to day mainly with amounts of cloud cover. Highs should be mostly in the 40s in the west and in the low 40s and upper 30s in the east, with lows mostly between 30 and 15, but probably zero to 10 above in higher valleys on clear nights. Normal maximum and minimum temperatures for this period are Gooding 37-21, Twin Falls 40-22 and Burley 39-20.

Some light rain is indicated for valley areas with snow in the mountains over the week-end, possibly beginning as early as Friday. Precipitation at lower elevations will average less than .10 of an inch with little or none in the valleys of the southeastern portion of this district.

TEMPERATURE AND PRECIPITATION

Highest temperature Tuesday, lowest temperature last 12 hours, precipitation for 24 hours ending 6 a.m. CST.

Alma Buttcane Taken By Death

RUPERT — Alma (Al) Buttcane, 80, Caledonia Hotel, died at 11 p.m. Tuesday of a heart attack.

He was born May 21, 1886, at Logan, Utah. He moved to Rupert in 1936 from Wendell. He owned and operated the Buttcane Furniture Store until his retirement in 1960. He was a member of George E. Marshall, Post No. 10, American Legion, in Rupert, the Odd Fellows Lodge in Rupert and the World War I Veterans.

Survivors include four sisters, Caroline Tanner and Zilla Clegg, both Blackfoot; Pearl Miles, Pocatello, and Etta Allen, Monrovia, Calif.; and two half-brothers, Ron Buttcane, Blackfoot, and Lem Buttcane, Modesto, Calif.

Unplanned

Winter Storm Swirls Into New England

By The Associated Press

A fast-moving winter storm swirled into New England today after dumping up to eight inches of snow on the big metropolitan centers of the mid-Atlantic states.

Heavy, wet snow snarled traffic from Virginia to New Jersey and closed many schools in the Washington, D.C., area. The capital recorded five inches of snow while its Virginia suburbs were blanketed by eight inches. One traffic death was blamed on the storm.

As the storm intensified over the Atlantic and headed northward, heavy snow warnings were posted for extreme eastern Pennsylvania, northwest New Jersey, southeastern New York and most of southern and central New England.

Forecasters said snow accumulations of six inches or more would be whipped into drifts by winds gusting to 40 miles per our today in those areas.

On the opposite coast, heavy rain sent some streams in Oregon over their banks, flooding many roads. More rain, with snow in the high mountains, was expected to continue from the north and central Pacific Coast inland to the northern Rockies.

Mostly sunny and dry weather was forecast today for the rest of the nation, with warmer temperatures from the Gulf states through the Mississippi and Ohio valleys.

Grangers At Shoshone To Hold Program

William Tews, Lawrence Tews and William Kerner are in charge of getting a Christmas tree. Decorations will be handled by D. G. Mitchell, Paul Bancroft and Ed Sheer.

Reports were given by members on current topics with Lawrence Tews reporting for the resolutions committee on farmers' income tax, Mitchell reporting for the agriculture committee and Mrs. George Horn reporting as home economics chairman on recent projects.

The interior of the hall was painted, committee members noted.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Kerner, new members, were obligated with Mrs. Louis Couch giving the welcome to them.

Mrs. Couch, lecturer, gave an item on farm prices and introduced program numbers. Lawrence Tews, Mrs. William Kerner, George Horn and D. G. Mitchell each gave articles on agriculture. Mrs. Couch conducted a quiz on the subject.

Mr. and Mrs. Couch presented a play and a film entitled "Farm in a Day," was shown by Bancroft. There was a closing thought on the "Farmers' Belief."

Rev. Pickett Speaks For Rupert BPW

RUPERT — Guests of the Business and Professional Women's Club at their dinner meeting Monday night at Hirnings Cafe were Rev. and Mrs. Fred L. Pickett, Mrs. Lena Cesari and Mrs. Iva Schuepbach.

The tables were decorated with miniature Christmas trees, and Christmas favors were made by Mrs. Alfred Zoerb. Mrs. Zoerb and Mrs. Frank Hinricks were hostesses.

"Christmas" was the theme of a talk by Rev. Pickett. He discussed the spiritual importance of the holiday as expressed with love in action.

Mrs. Ruby Gilmore gave a reading, "There Is, Virginia." A gift exchange and a verbal exchange of each member's Christmas plans followed.

The Jan. 9 meeting will be in charge of Anna Grace, membership chairman, assisted by Mrs. Shirley Cox.

Wood River Grange Sets Yule Party

Leigh Kelley will select a tree for the event. Assisting him with decorations will be Gene Guthrie. Each family will provide a program number. Women of the Grange are to take cookies or fruit cake for the refreshments.

At a planning meeting, permission was granted for use of the hall for a social next month. Decision was made to charge for anything broken during use of the hall by other organizations or persons other than the Grange.

Improvements for the hall were considered.

LAKE LOWERED

SPOKANE (AP) — Pend Oreille Lake in North Idaho will be lowered nine feet to help meet the demands for additional power in the Pacific Northwest.

Bands Slate Performance At Kimberly

KIMBERLY — The Fifth Grade Beginners Band, the Sixth Grade Elementary Band and the Seventh and Eighth Cadet Bands will perform at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Kimberly High School Gymnasium, Joe Goss, director of music, announced Wednesday.

Also performing will be the fourth, fifth and sixth grade choir. The "Night the Angels Sang" will be presented by the special honor choir composed of grades one through sixth. The solo parts will be done by the seventh and eighth grade choir. The finale will be two Christmas carols sung by all choirs.

Mrs. Jane McElroy will direct the fourth, fifth and sixth grade choir and the honor choir.

The public is invited and no admission will be charged.

Youth Ranch Eyes Details Of Licensing

RUPERT — The executive committee of the Idaho Youth Ranch board of directors is studying final phases of the licensing program for the ranch, it was announced Wednesday.

The license as a child care agency is issued through the Department of Public Assistance, and in no way affects the operation of the ranch, according to John McCollum, acting administrator of the ranch, nor does it involve any state, federal or county monies. It is merely a document stating that the services and procedures meet the approval of the licensing agency, McCollum said.

The committee also authorized securing the services of a social worker on a part-time basis; until such time as the program can accommodate the case worker on a full-time basis.

Also up for consideration was the farm-land-leasing program at the ranch. Financial arrangements on past leases were discussed together with profits, and arrangements were tentatively set toward next year's leases.

The ranch leases about 1,300 acres, usually to two or more farmers.

The 23 boys who are now residents at the ranch were introduced to the board.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two sisters and a brother.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday in Twin Falls Mortuary Chapel. Final rites will be held at Sunset Memorial Park.

Indians From 5 States Meet To Set Rules

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Indians from five states huddled today in a series of committee meetings to formulate a set of resolutions to present to Indian Affairs Commissioner Howard Bennett.

The meeting of tribal leaders, called by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, will vote on resolutions.

Bennett will take the resolutions, which cover the full range of Indians' needs, back to Washington.

These resolutions and others gathered at regional meetings throughout the country will form the basis for the bureau's congressional program.

Soviets Boost Arsenal Of Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon sources indicate that the Soviet Union apparently has decided to develop multiple nuclear warheads to bolster its growing arsenal of intercontinental ballistic missiles.

The Soviet aim, sources said, obviously would be to neutralize or outweigh any offensive advantage the United States would gain by installing the multiple warheads on its new Minuteman III and Poseidon ICBMs now under development.

High-level Pentagon officials generally were reluctant to comment on the reported Soviet program, first revealed Tuesday in a technical journal.

However, one source said: "We know they have missiles (ICBMs), and it's a standard technical option" to install the multiple warheads.

Jerome Girl Is Hurt In Crash

JEROME—Caroline Jones, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Jones, Route 2, Jerome, was listed in satisfactory condition at St. Benedict's Hospital Wednesday after a one-car accident at 9 a.m. one and one-eighth miles west of the Jerome city center on Highway 25.

Miss Jones' car hit a patch of black ice, spun across the highway and struck a power pole, snapping it off, sheriff's officers said.

She was taken to the hospital by ambulance after complaining of back pains. She underwent X-rays Wednesday morning.

Area Woman Injured In Auto Mishap

KIMBERLY — A Hansen woman was injured in a one-car mishap early Wednesday morning one mile north and about one mile east of here on a county road.

Mrs. Eunice Hope DeMoss, 39, Route 2, Hansen, is listed in fairly good condition at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital of injuries she received in the accident.

According to Idaho State Police, Mrs. DeMoss was driving a 1965 Ford Mustang west on a county road when the mishap occurred at 6 a.m. State Police said the auto went off the road and into a borrow pit on the north side of the road, traveled 252 feet, rolled over once and came to rest on its wheels in the borrow pit, facing southwest.

Mrs. DeMoss was cited for speeding too fast for existing road conditions. Damage to the Mustang was estimated at $2,000.

Brown returned from Moscow recently. He conferred there with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko and others on Vietnam.

The Russians gave Brown no sign of change in Communist terms for a Vietnamese settlement. But Brown and his advisers thought it significant that the Russians are prepared to discuss all aspects of the situation. This attitude contrasts with the refusal in the past to discuss Vietnam with Westerners.

In their session, the working partners of NATO plunged into the task of providing political guidance to their nuclear strategy.

Assembly Of God Church Holiday Plans Revealed

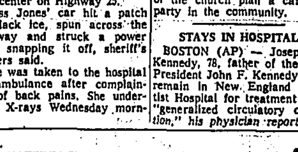

SHOSHONE — The Christian Bible Club of the Assembly of God Church will hold a birthday party for Jesus at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the church. Each child will take a gift, to be given to an orphan or to an Indian child.

Mrs. Harold Huyser and Mrs. James Pate are in charge of arrangements for the event.

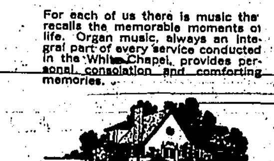

The Sunday School special Christmas program will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 21 at the church. On Dec. 22, youth of the church plan a caroling party in the community.

STAYS IN HOSPITAL

BOSTON (AP) — Joseph P. Kennedy, 78, father of the late President John F. Kennedy, will remain in New England Baptist Hospital for treatment of a "generalized circulatory condition," his physician reports.

Star Of Peace

President Johnson's announcement that he will ask the new Congress for an additional $9 to $10 billion to finance the next six months of the Viet Nam war is especially saddening at this season of Christmas.

Defense Secretary McNamara's announcement at the same press conference that this country will pour other millions or billions into producing the advanced Minuteman III missile to counter an unexpected Russian buildup of ICBMs can only make one wonder if mankind has learned anything at all in the past 2,000 years.

Does anyone, on either side of humanity's ideological divide, actually contemplate using these terrible, nation-obliterating weapons? If they are reserved, as America and Russia and even Red China have pledged they are, solely for purposes of deterrence and retaliation, why cannot rational men invent some other sort of safeguard to remove this mutual fear of attack?

If the killing in Viet Nam can be halted for four days at Christmas, and if it can be held down to non-nuclear levels for the other 361 days of the year, why cannot rational men end it entirely?

The answer eludes us, even more than it eluded the medieval church, whose Truce of God eventually succeeded in limiting feudal warfare to a quarter of the year.

It is only man, of course, who calls himself rational. No other animal pretends to that distinction; no other animal destroys its own kind with such passion and ingenuity and lays waste its own environment with such thoroughness.

Yet, it is this very irrationality, which perpetually tempts men to their own destruction, that also enables them to nourish hope and to conceive of a better future.

What is more irrational, in the light of human history, than to cling to the story of a star that once shone in the east, of voices from the sky proclaiming: "Peace on earth, good will to men"?

What could be more irrational, in the face of the record of self-caused human misery, than to believe that the day will come when men will cast aside their fears and hatreds and jealousies — and their weapons?

But what would be more irrational than not to believe it, and believing it, to strive for it?

COST OF STICKY FINGERS

With a boost from Christmas, stores and businesses are expected to rack up a record $3 to $4 billion for 1966—not sales, but losses.

That's the price tag put on employe pilfering and amateur shoplifting. The latter is the nation's fastest growing form of larceny and should account for a third of the total figure, says the family economics bureau of Northwestern National Life Insurance Co.

The average theft of the amateur shoplifter is petty, the bureau's study shows, usually between $3 and $5 in value (though this average has trebled in the past five years). The amateurs are so numerous, however, that they cost many stores as much as the fewer but more selective professionals.

As for employe thievery, one bonding company has disclosed that thefts of goods and cash by dishonest employes costs its client firms five times as much as losses from burglaries and holdups.

During a six-month period in 1965, there were 462 bank holdups in the United States, netting about $2 million. In the same period, defalcations by bank employes totaled more than three times as much—$6.5 million.

Outright need or actual poverty account for only a very small proportion of amateur shoplifting or employe thefts. Needy circumstances are found in only one out of 50 embezzlement cases, and kleptomaniacs represent less than one per cent of shoplifting cases.

What is causing this rise in amateur larceny? It seems to be a combination of more opportunities, the reluctance of merchants and employers to prosecute, easy penalties, a spreading popular attitude that "it's OK, if you get away with it"; and the inability to resist the chance to get something for nothing.

But the shoplifter doesn't really get what he steals for nothing. The cost of his stealing is merely tacked onto the price of everything else he buys, when he does buy.

One nationwide business protection service estimates that this can amount to as much as 5 per cent of the retail price of an item. Unfortunately, it is the overwhelming number of honest customers who must pay most of the bill for thievery.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

By ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON — An authentic liberal said goodbye to Capitol Hill the other day. Illinois Paul Douglas lost his race for reelection to the youthful Chuck Percy, but only death will defeat this warrior who has fought all his 74 years for the human race and will continue to do so while a breath is left in him.

Andrew Tully

Possibly the most accurate way to describe Paul Douglas is to point out that he could never be mistaken for one of the so-called liberals of the New Left. All of Webster's definitions of a liberal fit Paul Douglas. He is a liberal, as "befitting a man of free birth," a man known for "bestowing in a large and noble way," a man "not confined or restricted to the literal sense . . . not narrow or contracted in mind."

But it is in the political sense that Paul Douglas differs so from the "liberal" of the New Left. He is "not bound by orthodox tenets or established forms in political or religious philosophy;" he is independent in opinion "having a tendency toward democratic or republican as distinguished from monarchical or aristocratic forms."

• • •

NO MORE LIKE HIM—Even after considerable research, I cannot come up with any New Left "liberal" who meets these definitions. In particular, none of the new bunch—who, like the Inquisition bishops, would burn a man for his own good—meets the qualifications of a political liberal. They are all bound inflexibly to the "orthodox tenets" of the New Left. While in weighing against the extremism of the Far Right, they constantly apologize for or dismiss as unimportant the new "monarchical" and "Aristocratic forms" of the Far Left. To the new "liberal," the Far Right is incorrigibly evil; the Far Left needs only a few of its rough edges knocked off to qualify for membership in the society of free men.

Paul Douglas was fighting the Far Right when most of today's drooling and blowzy New Liberals were crawling around in wet diapers. But the his never marked any difference between the intellectual totalitarianism of the Far Right and the Far Left.

AGAINST AUTHORITARIANISM — Douglas spelled it out at his last Capitol Hill press conference. He has taken a stand to fight in Viet Nam, he said, because police states in any form "crush out all forms of freedom;" he finds communist aggression no better than Nazi aggression. "They freeze people instead of burning them to death, that's the only difference," he said.

To the dismay of the New Liberal, Paul Douglas has always insisted on pointing out the utter lack of democracy in communist regimes. There, the elite of the old capitalist nations has been replaced with the elite of communism—the political and military bosses, the prostituted writers and artists and architects, the secret cop, the cold-blooded bureaucrat. The Russian or Chinese peasant persecuted by a communist regime in the name of Marx and Lenin surely is just as miserable as the Homestead steel worker who took his lumps from a profiteering Andy Carnegie.

• • •

STRANGE DIVERGENCE — There is something ludicrously contradictory in the idols selected by the New Left. Its members condemn to exile as "old fashioned" men like Paul Douglas and Hubert Humphrey, who have always opposed the invasion of privacy in any form, yet they are mesmerized by a Bobby Kennedy who, as Attorney General, ordered FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover to employ electronic gadgets to eavesdrop on free citizens.

Views Of Others

FROM ALPS TO ARNO

Thousands if not millions of American tourists have inspected the great art treasures of Florence and Venice, so it was perhaps inevitable that reports on the recent North-Italian floods would emphasize efforts to save these. But what about the people?

The bare facts are that the most productive third of Italy now lies largely unproductive. The flood guilted shops in Florence and Venice and in Florence, wrecked factories and swept away roads and rail lines. Possibly the worst damage was to the rural areas, where livestock and crops were destroyed. As a consequence, many of the area's 6,000,000 people have been left destitute; exact figures may not be known for some time.

Americans need not wait for exact figures to display their native kindness toward another people traditionally hospitable to Americans and now in need. The American Campaign for Italian Flood Relief, Inc., is already at work under distinguished leadership, and an extensive St. Louis Committee, led by attorney Paul B. Rava, is asking St. Louisans to help the flood victims. As citizens here discover the scope of the tragedy in Italy, we do not doubt that they will respond.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch

PRICE OF PILFERAGE

Commerce and industry, it is estimated, lose about $2 billion a year from pilferage. According to one source, such pilferage accounts for between three and seven per cent of all business failure: Employe thieves outnumber ordinary shoplifters, according to the same source.

What is more significant, according to one estimate, is that 32 per cent more people in the United States are stealing today than were stealing 10 years ago.

What does this mean to the average consumer? Only this: It is estimated that 15 per cent of consumer prices go to cover the cost of pilferage. Quite a price to pay for dishonesty. Except the wrong people are paying it.—New Orleans States-Item.

JOB FOR COMPUTER

Another amusing computer story has come to our attention. It involved the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League. Baffled by inability to work out a satisfactory interlocking schedule, league officials entrusted its problem to a computer.

Result? The computer's schedule called for the Eskimos to play five games in seven days, including one game against themselves. The Eskimos would be bruised, battered and tired if the computer had its way. — Topeka Daily Capital.

GO NORTH!

With the season to ski once more at hand, we are reminded that the Sun Valley Ketchum telephone book looks like a rehash of the Twin Falls book.

There are so many people from here who now have winter-summer homes up that way that it is getting to be a "Little Twin Falls."

It used to be that a guy could take his girl friend that far away from home and the event would go unnoticed. Now you meet everyone you know.

But then it does have its advantages. When you have a home up there and come down off the hill all tired you do not have far to drive.

It is far better that the sleepy heads stay off the road back to Twin Falls and give everyone a chance to live. After a good night's sleep the trip home is refreshing.

What with modern roads and snow removal equipment the trip to or from the resort center, which used to take up to three hours one way, can be made in just a little over an hour and a half and speed laws can be observed.

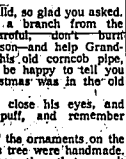

Progress is wonderful!

Interpreting The News

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The evolution of the Supreme Court in its willingness to plunge into the various thickets of American existence — has been a slow process.

From the beginning the court had the power to make decisions, and often did, broad enough to affect all American life although some of them at the time may have seemed too remote to give that impression.

But how deeply the court got into the everyday scene with its multitude of problems, including very human ones, depended on the members of the court at any one period; their philosophy about the role of the court, their courage, timidity, conservatism, liberalism, perhaps intellectual vigor, and the mood of the times.

The present court is the most active in history, leaving its imprint in all directions. Its willingness to move in on civil rights, school prayers or legislative reapportionment are just the spectacular examples.

It has shown an equal readiness to tackle a wide range of dilemmas — personal, political, or economic although all of them have a constitutional question within them — and its actions Monday were a good example.

It unsnarled Georgia's recent election dispute — should Democrat Lester G. Maddox or Republican Howard Calloway be governor? — by ruling the state legislature can decide.

Result? The computer's schedule called for the Eskimos to play five games in seven days, including one game against themselves. The Eskimos would be bruised, battered and tired if the computer had its way. — Topeka Daily Capital.

Poor Man's Plato

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Everybody really loves Christmas.

Some may say they don't like Christmas for this reason, or they don't like it for that reason.

But what their complaints come down to, if put under a long look, is this: They are afraid to put their heart into this Christmas because they are lonesome for some Christmas before.

This can be understood.

The human heart must look ahead to do its duty; but the human heart must look behind also to know that it has been faithful to its highway.

"Tell me how Christmas was in the old days," a sensitive child may ask of his elders today.

Well, child, so glad you asked. Go fetch a branch from the hearth—careful, don't burn yourself, son—and help Grandpa light his old corncob pipe, and he'll be happy to tell you how Christmas was in the old days.

He can close his eyes, and take a puff, and remember when—

Most of the ornaments on the Christmas tree were handmade.

Any decoration that wasn't homemade was fervently believed, as was any glass eye the neighborhood, to come from Czechoslovakia. So was the cut glass bowl on the golden oak sideboard.

Anything from Czechoslovakia was fragile and reflected light and was prized because it represented an exotic distinction. It stood for a kind of class.

The Christmas tree, as often as not, was selected after a venturesome trip in the family car —interrupted by three flat tires —to the countryside, and hacked down in person and taken home in triumph.

Those who didn't have an automobile would lug it to the nearest trolley line and bring it home by streetcar. The motorman laughed, and the conductor charged no fare for the tree. As a matter of fact, he wouldn't collect a fare for any member of the family who was smaller in height than the tree.

"It has to be put this way," she said critically, turning its least limbs of wealth to the wall. Everybody agreed that she had the perfect eye to show its splendor to the best advantage.

Everybody went into the kitchen and popped popcorn except Papa. Everybody but Papa got out needles and thread and wove strands of white popcorn and red cranberries around and around and around the green lifted arms of the tree.

Then Papa perched perilously on a chair and fixed to the peak of the tree a five-pointed star made from the tinfoil of cigarette packages.

There were no electric lights. Candles in tin holders were clipped to the outer boughs of the tree, and carefully lit, and then blazed a yuletide glory. The lighted tree that was the bonfire of the family heart.

Then the sleepy children hung up their stockings with care, and on leaden feet trudged to bed, dreaming with a drowsy excitement.

During the night Santa Claus came down the chimney.

When the children pawed themselves awake and ran shivering downstairs in their thin winter underwear they found in each stocking a golden fresh orange—the only one they knew all year long except if they were ill—and nuts, and striped white and red and green candy.

And piled in a small heap under the tree were the toys and presents from Santa Claus for the family to play with and to wear and to share. The room erupted in tumult.

"Is this for me? See what I got? Is this for both of us? Please, can I try it first? Now it's my turn. Well, all right, me next."

O Santa Claus, thank you, thank you!

That was christmas then.

TAYLOR'S VIEWS ON WASHINGTON

By HENRY J. TAYLOR

Algeria's threats to repudiate her contracts with American oil companies, which happens so often in hinterlands after foreign know-how and investment have served their purpose, is occurring in one of the world's most incredible places.

Henry J. Taylor

The Moslems have a saying that "Allah can comprehend: the flight of an eagle in the sky; the path of a serpent on the rock; the trace of a ship on the sea; the size of the Sahara.

The Sahara covers three million square miles; the great Gobi desert only 500,000.

I once went to these Saharan oil-gas fields with famous French Foreign Legion Colonel Frederic Riedel, who flew me over the incredible desert from his headquarters at Djelfa.

The desert's railroad contact with the northern world ends there and we flew south to Bogahris, which stands on the rim of a phenomenon: the great Sahara Depression.

The Niagara of sand falls straight down into a limitless, blazing sea of rock escarpments. These twist thousands of feet into the air and are molded into weird, angry-looking shapes that rise among Dante-like dunes strewn with tremendous boulders, like dark melons in a patch.

The door to the furnace of Africa was open when we reached the oil exploration center on the Laghouat oasis. The temperature was 122 degrees.

We landed surrounded by phenomenon No. 2: the Sahara barkhans — the vast crescent dunes that shift ceaselessly in the wind, their tapering horns a mile apart, their center cones racing across the desert in the glare of the sun. And we landed in a locust plague — a third Sahara phenomenon.

Riedel's wheels skidded on the carcasses of the countless millions that blackened the airstrip. The swarm had nibbled and nibbled all that was green on the oasis until everything that contained any indication of life was dead.

The gleaming yellow walls, parapets and barracks of the Foreign Legion compound were built in 1882. The French had been in the Sahara longer than they have been in Nice, although no European ever crossed its unchartered sands until 1825.

British Major Gordon Laing was the first and his epic adventure is told magnificently in my friend James Wellard's book, "The Great Sahara." Laing's summary: "The route was vile."

Yet the Sahara is a desert which has never been deserted. Herodotus reports that the Carthaginians circumnavigated the African continent in 600 B.C., a voyage not repeated by European sailors until 2,000 years later. In fact, the area was much better known 20 centuries ago than at the beginning of ours.

Caesar yearned to learn the source of the Nile. He first landed on African soil at Thapus in 46 B.C. One Roman legion deep in the Sahara was all that was needed for 300 years of occupation to control an area of influence half the size of modern Europe. But in the 7th Century Europe's influence ended with the Arab defeat of the Roman army at the Romano-African city of Sefetula. Meanwhile, at Leptis Magna, the amphitheatre holding 40,000 people — seems still awaiting the next production of Euripides.

I mention in my current book, "Men and Moments," that the camel is a newcomer to the Sahara. It has been there (from Asia) only since about 200 B.C., and one of the few things to survive with the nomad Arab for at least 6,000 years is the vulture. Earlier still, however, before the Sahara dried up and drove its population to the African rivers and jungles, its great marauder was the ancient mastodon called Stegotetrabelodon Syrticus — a four-tusked monster twice the size of a modern elephant. Two tusks are in Spain today on display at Shabi, in Libya, in a castle built by the Crusaders.

Here is a vast area, larger than the continental United States, where time really means nothing. The Saharan lion still hides in its strange rays to avoid being seen by the dazzled hunters; the foreigners come, or go; and the nomads, like most desert people, still perform the ritual of worshipping the sun, which is their enemy, instead of the rivers, which are their only hope.

Opinions Of A Conservative

By BARRY GOLDWATER

Once again some disturbed and disorderly students at the University of California's Berkeley campus have demonstrated that their cause has nothing to do with freedom, academic or otherwise.

They are not pressing for their right to do anything, but to end everyone else's right to do anything of which they, the self-appointed student dictators, do not approve.

Berkeley's most recent disturbances, which blossomed into a student strike, cannot be viewed in any other light by reasonable men. The students objected to the presence on the campus of a naval recruiter. What could be more obvious to demonstrate their authoritarian, antifree-speech attitude?

The action of the students would be far more consistent with their shouts for freedom, for instance, if they objected to the forced military service of college students. But their position is that a student on their campus should not have the right, without coercion and in his own way, to talk to a naval recruiter about voluntarily entering the armed forces.

Exactly this same authoritarian, dogmatic position was obvious when Berkeley began first to acquire its reputation as America's first purely political university. Then, you may recall, the students rioted in the name of a so-called Free Speech Movement.

No matter how repulsive the free speech they were advocating, any true advocate of a free society would have had to support their right to speak out about matters which they considered important.

I have long and steadily defended the right of Communists, as an example, to speak on public campuses, so long as their opponents and all other political and philosophical factions equally have that right. It is when speakers begin calling for the initiation of violence against someone else that the people in the community have a clear responsibility to protect themselves. Short of that, speech should be — and to a degree not found elsewhere in the world is — free in this country.

But Berkeley's first outburst, despite its name, was not aimed at free speech. Quite to the contrary, it was aimed specifically and actively at denying the right to speak to any segment of the university connected with the violent element.

Speakers representing other views were dragged from platforms. Microphones were snatched from them. Only students who could pass a test of conformity were permitted to join the Free Speech Movement or to speak without violent interruption.

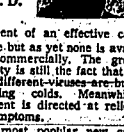

Nothing has changed. The clear objective in the current disturbance is violently to deny rights to anyone not in agreement with or enrolled in the controlling student movement. It is not enough for a student simply to be for free speech, but he must work to deny freedom to anyone with whom the student junta disagrees.

As a result, Berkeley students who are at the school to get an education are suffering every day from the grip of an unrest which demands, as its basic belief, that the students must not simply be educated, but indoctrinated with the Marxist outlook of the young student storm troopers.

They do not want a campus on which Marxism is represented — as it always has been. They want a campus on which nothing else is represented and on which all other viewpoints are oppressed or suppressed.

These bullies of the left are not students, but thugs. Action to end their violence would permit real freedom at Berkeley.

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M. D.

The common cold is something of a misnomer. It is common enough, but it is not the result of getting chilled. Although much research has been done on this disease, it is far from being licked. One reason is that the common cold is not one disease but a group of diseases caused by many different viruses. Chimpanzees may get colds caused by the same viruses that cause the disease in man, but, when other animals get colds, and they do, they stick to their own brand of cold virus.

Some of the viruses that cause colds in man cannot be passed on to others, so no one knows how they are spread. Other cold viruses are spread from person to person but only during the early stages of the disease.

If you have dripped into a handkerchief until it is wet, then pull the handkerchief out of your pocket with a flourish, you will spread virus particles throughout the room. But after the same handkerchief has dried, it is no longer a means of spreading the infection.

Work is progressing on the development of an effective cold vaccine but as yet none is available commercially. The great difficulty is still the fact that so many different viruses are busy producing colds. Meanwhile, treatment is directed at relieving symptoms.

The most popular new cold capsules usually contain antihistamines (of doubtful value unless allergy is a factor), decongestants, pain relievers and cough inhibitors. These remedies have the advantage that they can't fail because a cold is self-limited—you're going to feel better in a few days no matter what you do.

A new drug in this field, Dorexin, an antihistamine with a decongestant and some pleasant flavoring, is put up as a tablet that will dissolve under the tongue. This has the advantage that you can take it in situations where you would not have access to water to help you swallow a capsule.

EVALUATION ORDERED

POCATELLO (AP)—Fifth District Judge Arthur P. Oliver has ordered a psychological evaluation of Lee Stuart Reichard, 26, of Pocatello, charged with two counts of statutory rape of a 10-year old girl.

The examination was requested by Reichard's court-appointed attorney after the accused man pleaded innocent.

Reichard remains in Bannock County Jail in lieu of $5,000 bond. He was arrested Nov. 13.

TALKS TO SHOPPERS

BOISE (AP) — An Oregon hops grower told a group of Housewives for Lower Food Prices Tuesday that part of the reason for increasing food prices was the decrease in migrant farm workers allowed to work in the United States.

Members of the housewives' group from different parts of Idaho met with Ada County legislators, Gov.-elect Don W. Samuelson, representatives of food dealers and commodity groups to discuss the recent clamor for lower prices.

BOND ISSUE FAILS

CALDWELL (AP) — Voters in the city of Caldwell refused at a special election Tuesday to approve a bond issue to finance construction of a new library.

The vote was 448 in favor of the $288,000 bond issue to 613 against.

It was the second time voters had turned down a bond issue for a new library.

SKI LIFT TO OPEN

CAMBRIDGE (AP) — The New Hitt Mountain Ski Area 14 miles west of Cambridge, in Southwestern Idaho, is scheduled to open Saturday.

Manager John Panike of Weiser said about three feet of snow is on the ground at the top of the ski run.

BOND VOTED DOWN

CALDWELL (AP) — Residents of the Canyon County school district 139 Tuesday turned down a bond issue proposed to finance additions and improvements to a number of rural elementary schools in the district.

The vote was 323 in favor of the $625,000 bond issue to 458 against.

Ruby Given Little Hope For Survival

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Doctors say Jack Ruby must pin his probably scant hopes for survival on chemical treatment of the cancer racing through his body.

Dr. Jack Barnett said Ruby cannot be cured by surgery because the cancer already has spread too far.

Ruby knows the nature of his illness. He was told Saturday.

Nonetheless, a hospital report said, he is "reasonably cheerful and continues to be free of pain" except for mild discomfort from chest tubes inserted to drain off excess fluid.

Barnett said a second malignant tumor was found — this one in the pleura, or lining between the chest wall and lung — of the same variety as a lymph node taken from Ruby's neck four days ago, he said.

Fluid from the chest likewise contains malignant cells, pathologists reported.

Ruby faces a retrial on charges of murdering Oswald, the man the Warren Commission named as the man who killed President John F. Kennedy Nov. 22, 1963, in Dallas.

The disclosure of new cancer dimmed chances for his going on trial again, however. The case has been transferred from Dallas to Wichita Falls.

Santa, Helper Learn Lesson From Jump

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — A Santa Claus and his helper learned Tuesday night that the next time they decide to visit a suburban shopping plaza might be better to use reindeer rather than parachutes.

Santa, also known as Clair Weimer of Cheektowaga, N.Y., and his helper, Robert McDonnell of Buffalo, stood before Peace Justice Joseph E. Pyszczynski of suburban Cheektowaga on a charge of violating the state's general business law. They had parachuted into the Thruway Plaza in Cheektowaga on Nov. 26.

After hearing the arguments of the defendants' lawyer, Pyszczynski dismissed the charges because of insufficient evidence.

The lawyer said the law states that an exhibition jump is a misdemeanor. It could not be determined whether Santa and his helper performed an exhibition jump or a training jump, the lawyer argued.

PROGRAM DROPPED

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP) — After a summer's experience with the Head Start kindergarten program, Lewiston School District directors voted Monday night to drop it completely.

Directors said they will have nothing to do with a Head Start program next summer. They indicated the Head Start eight-week session was too costly compared with nine-month private kindergartens here.

"I feel much of Head Start has nothing whatever to do with education," said school director George Henriksen. "A large part of it should be administered by the health and other existing state departments."

CRASH THROUGH TRESTLE

REUBENS, Ida. (AP)—Three railroad freight cars loaded with wheat crashed through a railroad trestle four miles south of here Tuesday morning after a derailment. No one was injured.

Three diesel engines and 18 freight cars had made it safely across the trestle which is 93 feet high and 400 feet long when the three cars were derailed and tipped over. Their weight ripped a gaping hole in the bridge. The three cars were smashed as they fell into a canyon. The remaining 18 cars had not started across the trestle.

MARKETING VIEWED

MOSCOW, Ida. (AP) — Overseas marketing of Palouse area peas and lentils is on the increase and will continue to rise as demand is created, members of the Tri-State Pea & Lentil Council were told Tuesday at their annual meeting here.

Joseph J. Spiruta, of Pullman, Wash., marketing director of the U.S. Dry Pea & Lentil Council, said results of the marketing program in Japan showed an increase in the price of yellow peas from $3.85 per hundred pounds a year ago to the present $5.20.

CHAIRMAN ELECTED

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP) — John Bone was elected chairman of the Nez Perce County Republican Central Committee Tuesday night, defeating Curtis Larson. Both are of Lewiston. The election followed the resignation of Robert B. Purcell of Lewiston, who was chosen county chairman after the August primary election.

Purcell was defeated in that primary by James A. McClure of Payette for the GOP nomination for Idaho's first congressional district. McClure went on to defeat incumbent-Democrat Compton I. White in the Nov. 8 general election.

LAW CHALLENGED

BOISE (AP) — The constitutionality of Idaho's Urban Renewal Law was challenged Tuesday in argument before the State Supreme Court.

The tribunal took the testimony under advisement and said it would rule later.

Also challenged by the suit filed by several Boise residents was the 1961 election which approved chartering of Boise as a first class city and the validity of the 1965 law which placed Idaho under the Federal Urban Renewal Act.

Third District Court had ruled the election valid earlier, but the ruling was challenged by plaintiffs who charged the majority of Boise's electors had to approve the charter change — not just a majority of those voting.

Auto Firm Announces Big Cutbacks

DETROIT (AP) — American Motors Corp. announced today sharp production cutbacks effective over next week and the following week.

American Motors has been having rough going in the auto markets and reported a loss of $12.6 million for the fiscal year ended Sept. 30. Last month it sold 22,846 units compared with 24,608 in November 1965, and last week, 6,258 against 7,860 in the corresponding year-ago week.

Auto industry sales generally have slackened this year in comparison with record-setting 1965. Only Ford among the four principal manufacturers has announced no production rollbacks.

American Motors said it will suspend production of Rambler bodies at its Kenosha, Wis., plant all of next week, and shut down all of its operations during the following week.

AMC employs 24,000 in American body making and 16,000 production workers in all.

Elimination Of Central Arizona Water Project Proposed By Board

By GORDON G. GAUSS

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Elimination from the proposed $1.7 billion Central Arizona Water Project of a dam above Grand Canyon National Park — a target of conservationist groups — and reduction in size of one below the park was recommended today to the Colorado Water Conservation Board.

Also recommended was modification of a provision calling for a federal study of the feasibility of importing water into the arid Southwest from the Columbia River Basin of the Pacific Northwest. Under the proposed revision the secretary of the interior would be asked only to make a preliminary reconnaissance study by 1971 of the import possibility.

The changes were approved late Tuesday by a special Colorado River Advisory Committee set up by the conservation board. The conservation board meeting was called to draft Colorado's official position on the Central Arizona Project. A bill seeking authorization of the project will be introduced into Congress next month.

The changes were suggested by director Felix L. Sparks of the conservation board. He said he outlined them Monday to delegates from the seven Colorado Basin States at a Los Angeles meeting. States in the basin are Colorado, Wyoming, New Mexico, Utah, Arizona, Nevada and California.

The Sparks proposal approved by the advisory committee would eliminate Marble Canyon Dam, upstream from the national park and would call for construction only of a low dam at Bridge Canyon, below the park. The Bridge Canyon dam has been officially named Hualapai Dam.

Advocates of the project have contended that elimination of the two proposed high dams would hamper repayment proposals.

They also say importation of water into the basin will be necessary by 1990 if Central Arizona is constructed.

"I don't think there is any question but what the Central Arizona (project) will be constructed," Sparks told the advisory committee. He said Colorado might be able to block it for a year or two but he declared the state should use it "to get guarantees that might otherwise not be available to it."

The reference was to authorization of five western Colorado reclamation projects in the Central Arizona bill.

He contended the primary reason the bill failed to pass Congress this year was the opposition of lawmakers from the Pacific Northwest to the water importation study but conceded conservationist opposition also was a factor.

Jurors List Is Selected For Lincoln

SHOSHONE — Lincoln County Commissioners selected the 1967 jurors at their Monday meeting. The list will not be available for publication for a few days, according to Mrs. Luella Kinsey, clerk.

Beer licenses were approved for 15 persons.

Officers for the county presented the proposed budget for 1967, which will be acted upon and the tentative budget set in January for the county. Final approval of the budget will be in February, when the figures may be lowered from the January tentative budget, but cannot be increased.

Justice of Peace C. W. Gwin reported $605.50—collected in fines and fees the past month.

LOW BIDDER NAMED

BOISE—Holmes Construction Co., Inc., of Heyburn, was the low bidder for work consisting of furnishing aggregate surfacing and cover coat in various stockpiles in the vicinity of Burley, Rupert, and Murtaugh. These are known as Idaho stockpiles 2530, 2533 and 2534 in Cassia, Minidoka and Twin Falls Counties. There were eight bids submitted.

Postal Aides Note Traffic For Holiday

Lineup at the service counters at the Twin Falls post office all day Tuesday confirmed the prediction that Christmas mailings will be heavier than ever this year, postal officials said Wednesday.

The local post office handled nearly two-thirds of a million pieces of mail during the last week or nearly 40,000 more than were handled over the same period a year ago. Approximately 50,000 of the special Christmas stamps have been sold thus far.

Local residents should anticipate that a deluge of mail will arrive at post offices all over the country during the 10 days just before Christmas, and mailings must be made this week to have any possibility of delivery by Christmas Day.

All greeting cards and parcels for distant states should be mailed before Thursday and cards and parcels for nearby states should be mailed by Friday. Mailings for local delivery should be made over the weekend.

People who do not observe these deadlines should realize that later mailings of gifts and greetings intended for the holidays will arrive at their destinations too late.

Customers are reminded that there will be no delivery of Christmas cards and letters, other than special delivery, on Christmas Day.

SBA Official To Be In Twin Falls

C. D. Brown, a representative of the small business administration, will spend Friday in Twin Falls.

He will be at the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce building to discuss with businessmen in individual interviews, the programs offered by the SBA. Of particular interest, according to Mr. Brown, is the new, more liberal loan program for meeting the needs of small businessmen requiring less than $15,000 in financial assistance.

"SBA is not in competition with banks," Mr. Brown stressed, "and there are several loan plans with bank participation in SBA loans." Referrals from banks, he said, remain the largest single source of loan applications.

Anyone wishing to visit with Mr. Brown should contact the Chamber of Commerce to arrange for an appointment.

ELLEN RAE KRAHN . . . daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Krahn, Fairfield, was selected as "Miss Idaho Wheat, 1967," by the Idaho State Wheat Growers at their convention in Boise. Miss Krahn represented the South Central Idaho district, competing against girls from other districts.

Area Girl Is Named "Miss Idaho Wheat"

FAIRFIELD — Ellen Rae Krahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Krahn, Fairfield, has been selected as "Miss Idaho Wheat, 1967" by the Idaho State Wheat Growers at their convention in Boise.

The brunette miss was judged on personality, poise, appearance, enthusiasm, intelligence and knowledge of the Idaho Wheat industry. She received a $100 bond, an expense paid trip to Seattle for the 1967 National Association of Wheat Growers convention, besides other prizes and trophies.

A senior at Camas County High School, she has been active in student affairs. She was the delegate to Girls' State last year, and is the editor of the 1967 school annual and on the Snowshoe staff. She has been a cheer leader for three years and is secretary of her class.

She was chaperoned to the convention by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Davis, Corral. Davis is the president of the Camas County Wheat Growers Association.

ACCEPTS BID

MONROVIA, Liberia (AP) — President William V. S. Tubman of Liberia accepted his True Whig party's bid Tuesday to run for the presidency again next May.

Shoshone To Join Newly Formed Unit

SHOSHONE—Members of the local Chamber of Commerce have voted to join the newly organized South Central Idaho Chamber of Commerce and named Herb Love and Francis Bergin as delegates with Kenneth Blackburn alternate.

The $10 yearly dues were approved for payment. At the Monday noon meeting held at the Manhattan Cafe, John George, president, reported he had received word from Hailey Chamber of Commerce that they were in favor of oiling the road to Magic Reservoir. Reid Newbry reported some farmers in the area do not approve of oiling that road until more of the farm roads are oiled.

Mont Johnson, Richfield, was a guest of the chamber.

Herb Love reported on a Dec. 1 meeting to be held at the Gooding Memorial building to form an organization to lobby at the next legislative session.

Purpose of the group will be to keep a watch on unnecessary expenditures.

Newby reported the theater was packed with children for the chamber-sponsored Christmas movie Saturday and that 600 bags of candy were distributed. Thirty bags were given to patients at the Convalescent Center. Cost of the project to the chamber was $162.47.

Recommendation was made that all Shoshone businesses close on legal holidays, Dec. 26 and Jan. 2.

Cecil Cope reported the Soil Conservation Awards meeting will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Lincoln School with Louise Shadduck, head of the State Department of Commerce and Development, featured speaker. The public is invited, Cope said.

Civilians' Wives Can Go To Saigon

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — The U. S. Embassy announced today that wives of American civilian officials stationed in Vietnam can come to Saigon to visit their husbands during the Christmas holidays.

Deputy Ambassador William J. Porter directed that wives but no children could visit in Saigon from Dec. 23 until Jan. 3.

Some 2,000 wives, children and other dependents of U. S. officials were ordered out of Vietnam in February 1966, as a safety precaution. Many of them live in Bangkok, Manila and Hong Kong.

Soviet Aid Fails To Make Communists Out Of Somalis

By DENNIS NEELD

MOGADISHU, Somali Republic (AP) — Nearly $100 million worth of Soviet assistance has failed to make Communists out of the fiercely independent and traditionally democratic Somalis.

This little republic of 4.5 million largely nomadic people nevertheless is the major Soviet foothold in Africa south of the Sahara.

In their Moscow swimsuits, Soviet technicians and their wives crowd onto Mogadishu's Lido Beach together with Peace Corps teachers from the United States, German economic advisers, and businessmen from Italy.

Some 250 Soviet military experts are training the Somali army in the use of $35 million worth of Soviet equipment. About 400 Somali cadets are training in the Soviet Union.

Soviet technicians have put up a dairy plant in Mogadishu, a meat factory at Chisimayo in the south, and are building a big new port at Berbera in the north. They have installed Soviet transmitters at Radio Mogadishu. Soviet doctors are at work in Somali hospitals.

Plans for three big state farms on the Moscow pattern have been drastically scaled down.

There may be a total of 500 Soviet technicians, experts and advisers in Somalia. Many have their families with them.

"There is no doubt the Soviets are highly regarded," one Western diplomat says. "When Somalia rejected the West's pretty miserable offer of military aid, the Russians jumped in with a far more generous counteroffense. That boosted their popularity, but their economic assistance has been something of a flop."

Costly Slugs

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) —A man was sentenced to one day in jail and fined $500 recently for using slugs in parking meters.

Judge Albert Saperstein said it was the toughest fine he had ever levied on this charge, "but this must stop."

Cantata Set By LDS Choir At Jerome

JEROME — A Christmas Cantata will be sung by members of the 30-voice LDS First Ward Choir at 4:15 p.m. Sunday at the LDS Chapel, North Lincoln, Jerome. The public is invited.

Written by Mrs. Lawrence Pace and narrated by Lawrence Pace, the production will be directed by Mrs. Elbert Brown. Mrs. Ethel Peterson, Joan Haddock and Margaret Van Orman will serve as accompanists.

The choir will sing "Jesus, Name of Wondrous Love," "Gesu Bambino," the "Carol of the Bells," "Angels We Have on High," and "The Echo Carol," with Mrs. Clyde Hansen, Mrs. Norman Redd and Jay Van Wagoner as soloists.

Watt's "Nativity Carol" will be sung by a mixed quartet composed of Mrs. Norman Redd, soprano; Mrs. Eldon Vawdrey, alto; Jay Van Wagoner, tenor, and Bill Hadlock, bass.

Baptists Slate Shoshone Cantata

SHOSHONE — The First Baptist Church Christmas Cantata will be held at 7:30 p.m. Sunday featuring John Peterson's "Night of Miracles."

All three church choirs will sing in the presentation. Soloists are Melvin Webb, baritone; Clarence Mogoffin, tenor. There are 18 junior choir members, ages 2 to 5 years; 14 youths in the junior high choir, ages sixth through eighth grades, and the remainder of the 50-voice composite choir from the adult choir.

No Ticket

NEW YORK (AP) — The reception was in honor of Milton Cross, for 45 years the radio voice of the Metropolitan Opera, but there he was wandering through the lobby of the Hotel Pierre asking: "Has anyone seen my wife?"

Guests, waiting in line to have their invitations to the reception checked, wanted to know what was behind his search.

Paul Man Gets Pilot's Rating

PAUL — Neal Christiansen, partner of C and R Equipment, Paul, was awarded the Federal Aviation Agency private pilot rating last week, Phil Payne, manager of Skyways, Inc., announced Tuesday.

Mr. Christiansen took his final "check ride" from Ken Hopper, FAA examiner, Dec. 3 at Twin Falls.

The private pilot rating will enable Mr. Christiansen to fly the company airplane in making calls on farmers in remote areas as well as in other business and pleasure activities.

Gooding Man Describes Tanganyika Work

JEROME—Dr. L. W. Morris, Gooding, spoke to the Jerome Rotary Club Tuesday noon about the six years' service he recently completed at a Lutheran Mission in Tanganyika, on the East coast of Africa.

Introduced by Vic Camozzi, program chairman for the meeting, Dr. Morris, whose time of service was spent in a hospital for lepers, told his attentive audience that there is much misunderstanding about the disease of leprosy.

All over the world, mostly in tropical countries, there are some 10 million lepers, about 300,000 of them in the United States. Contrary to widespread belief, the disease is only mildly contagious, he asserted.

It is caused by a bacillus, as is tuberculosis, and many of the same medicines are used in the treatment of both diseases. The bacillus of leprosy is extremely hard to culture, Dr. Morris noted, because only humans can carry or transfer it.

A Dr. Hansen finally succeeded in isolating the bacillus, and the disease is sometimes called by his name, Dr. Morris said.

In the United States Leprosarium, at Carville, La., doctors are experimenting with a new drug, working with volunteer patients. Early results were disappointing, the speaker said. However, after six months, two patients improved; that after another six months the whole group began to improve.

Dr. Morris closed his talk by showing slides of the hospital where he had served, and the Lutheran Mission, in Tanganyika, as well as of different patients. He noted that with the use of modern drugs, patients can be released after a period of intensive hospital treatment, to lead normal lives, remaining on an outpatient basis for continued treatment.

It was announced the regular luncheon meeting for Dec. 27 will be canceled, because of the holiday party to be held the evening of Dec. 28.

Sen. Murphy May Get Job Of Hunting Votes And Money For Republicans

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) — California Sen. George Murphy appears headed for the GOP job that helped make Barry Goldwater famous — hunting votes and money for Republican Senate campaigners.

Goldwater, who served four years as chairman of the Senate Republican Campaign Committee, said he thinks Murphy, 64, should get the post.

Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky, who holds it now, said the Californian apparently has the votes to take over when GOP senators fill the position in January.

Morton is leaving the post to prepare his own re-election campaign. Goldwater plans a Senate race for the Arizona seat now held by Sen. Carl Hayden, a Democrat.

Murphy leans toward conservatism; Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, who also wants the job, is among the Senate's more liberal Republicans.

But Goldwater said in an interview that ideology has nothing to do with his view. "I think somebody like Murphy will be more universally accepted, particularly in the West," he said.

"This is no ideological clash in the party at all," said Morton, "just a question of who can raise some hard cash."

He said Murphy ranks right behind Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen as the most sought-after speechmaker among GOP senators.

Dirksen was not tipping his hand on a choice for the chairmanship. He said Sens. Jack R. Miller of Iowa and Gordon L. Allott of Colorado want it, too.

Forgetful

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — A high school senior returned home from class for a forgotten textbook recently, parked his car and ran in the house.

As William Kneller, 17, walked through the living room, book in hand, he heard a thud, saw the picture window shatter and the car bumper poke inside.

The car had rolled down an incline into the house. On its way, it also crumpled the gas meter, leaving the house heatless in 20-degree weather.

Mrs. Major Is Rebekah Lodge Noble Grand

Mrs. Chester Partin is vice grand; Mrs. Jerry Maxton, recording secretary; Mrs. W. D. Parks, financial secretary; Mrs. Harry Stewart, treasurer; Mrs. Leland Hudson, trustee No. 1; Mrs. Guy Ulrich, trustee No. 2; Mrs. Marie Latham, trustee No. 3, and Mrs. Stanley Babington, staff captain.

Officers will be installed at the next meeting.

Members were reminded to visit members who are in rest homes in Twin Falls and Buhl during the holidays.

A thank-you note was read from the Idaho Youth Ranch for the canned fruit sent recently, and a note read from Mr. and Mrs. Omer Shook, Shoshone, explaining qualifications for United Nations Pilgrimage delegates.

Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. Ulrich reported on the joint meeting held at the Filer Odd Fellows Hall. Mrs. Carl Blass, Filer, showed films taken on her trip to Central America and Mexico.

The next joint meeting of the lodge will be held Thursday in Buhl.

Pounds Chasers Give Reports

MURTAUGH — The monthly report for the Pounds Chasers TOPS Club shows a total weight loss of 12 and one-half pounds for November. Mrs. Daniel Fox was the best loser for the month and received the hair styling award.

The best weekly losers were Mrs. Fox for the first, third and fourth weeks, and Mrs. James Miller for the second week.

Mrs. Percy Christensen was elected leader for the club; Mrs. Ronald Crossman, co-leader; Mrs. Fox, secretary, and Mrs. Dale H. Petersen, treasurer.

Mrs. Miller was graduated into KOPS for reaching her goal of weight loss and maintaining it for a prescribed period.

LDS Relief Society Meets

HAGERMAN — Mrs. R. K. Bendorf conducted the LDS Relief Society meeting at the LDS Church, and Mrs. James McCham gave the social living lesson, "Light and Truth."

Prayers were given by Mrs. Isabelle Morgan and Mrs. D. H. Gold. Mrs. Ethel Boyer and Mrs. Nels Anderson were in charge of the music.

Mrs. Jack Allen gave the visiting teacher's lesson, "World Affairs." Prayers for this session were given by Mrs. Ted Andrus and Mrs. Nettie Moyes.

An all-day work meeting is set for 10 a.m. Thursday and a potluck luncheon will be served at noon.

Area Catholic Women's League Meeting Held

JEROME — A nativity scene, Advent wreath and other Christmas decorations adorned St. Jerome's Parish Hall for the meeting of the Catholic Women's League.

Mrs. L. W. Sanberg reported that 1,478 pounds of clothing have been sorted and packed at the parish hall, under her direction. She disclosed plans for gifts for the group's adopted child at St. Joseph's Children's Home, and requested a donation for game prizes for St. Benedict's long term care unit, which the women voted to give.

Mrs. James Glodowski reported on the Thanksgiving procession, which included the children of the parish, held at Mass that morning.

Mrs. Leonard Huber announced that the children will provide the program for the annual parish Christmas party, which will be held at Jefferson School at 7 p.m. Sunday.

A special welcome was given to Mrs. Mary Turner.

Mrs. William Last presented a program on observances of Advent and the Christmas season. She displayed articles that could be made for use now and for various other feast days.

Two piano solos were played by Susan Thompson. Maria Blades sang a Christmas medley accompanied by Sue Mesenger.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Will you please comment on people who can afford to buy a car, but prefer to spend their money on European vacations and other luxuries? Yet, they expect their friends to provide them with taxi service. These same people never offer to buy a gallon of gas, and should there be any accident, they would be the first to sue the owner of the car.

The driver has all the liability attached to safely transporting the passenger just the same as a taxi driver, but without the remuneration. How do you discourage people like this?

LA JOLLA

DEAR LA JOLLA: You "discourage" them by refusing to transport them. But don't expect a cordial relationship to follow. The habit of imposing upon friends in the boll on the neck of friendship. And it is impossible to get rid of the boll without losing the patient.

DEAR ABBY: I am always getting blamed for the letters in your column written by women who hate cigaret smoke, so I thought I might as well get in my two cents and get the credit.

Is cigaret smoke as thick as fog in your home, ashes all over the place, and cigaret breath grounds for divorce? I know Winstons tastes good like a cigaret should, but my husband's kisses taste terrible. He wants kisses, and he knows how I feel about his cigaret breath, so why does he smoke?

HOLDING OUT

DEAR HOLDING: Your husband smokes, poor slave, because he can't kick the habit. I don't recommend the "hold out" system. He might turn to something (or someone) else.

DEAR ABBY: I am going to my first prom, and my date has invited me out for dinner first. What should I order? Don't say to order whatever HE does because I have to order first. My date isn't exactly poor, but he's not rich either. Please suggest something.

OUT OF IDEAS

DEAR OUT: Don't order the most expensive thing on the menu or you'll hurt his pocketbook. And don't order the cheapest thing on the menu or you'll hurt his feelings. Order a dinner because the salad, vegetable, beverage, and dessert usually come with it.

DEAR ABBY: I read in your column of the girl who had been sent off to college with a whole new wardrobe, only to write home after two months that she needed more clothes because her boy friend had seen her in everything she owned. You advised her mother to tell her to get a new boy friend and start over. Good for you!

Now, may I tell you a true story: Once there was a struggling young law student who became very much attracted to a very pretty little co-ed, but he noticed that every time he dated her she was wearing a different outfit. He soon realized that he could never afford to keep that girl in clothes, so he quit dating her before he got too involved. I was that man.

M. L. of S. F.

Magic Valley Favorites

MRS. MARGARET DRIESEL
430 Nebraska St., Gooding

MOLASSES PEANUT BRITTLE

1 cup molasses
1 cup sugar
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
¼ teaspoon baking soda
2 cups chopped peanuts

Combine molasses, sugar and butter in a two quart saucepan. Place over low heat and stir until sugar is dissolved.

Cook over medium heat until syrup reaches 270 degrees on a candy thermometer, or when small amount of syrup dropped in very cold water separates into threads which are hard but not brittle.

Remove from heat, stir in baking soda and nuts. Turn into a greased eight-inch square pan. Spread quickly. When slightly cool, cut into squares. Yield about 1½ pounds.

(The Times-News will pay $2 each week for the best recipe submitted for Magic Valley Favorites. If you have a favorite recipe, just mail it to the Recipe Department, Women's Page editor. The recipe becomes the property of the Times-News and cannot be returned.)

INTERESTING COMBINATION

NO-HOST DINNER HELD

Bliss Flower Club Convenes

BLISS—Members of the Bliss Flower Club held their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Vinora Hansten, Gooding, with Mrs. Ethel Hansten as co-hostess.

A potluck luncheon was served and a gift exchange held. The program was under the direction of Mrs. Viola Hainline, and readings were given by Mrs. James Faulkner and Mrs. Charles Hobdey. Games were played. Mrs. John Tschannen received a prize.

Beta Sigma Phi Unit Members Hear Reports

BURLEY—Xi Omega Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, heard reports at a recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Jay Perry, Declo. Mrs. Robert Mahoney, Albion, was co-hostess.

Mrs. Cleo Cheney, president, welcomed Mrs. Clyde Bowers, a new pledge. The pledge ritual for Mrs. Bowers will be at the home of Mrs. William Sugg.

Reports were given on the fashion show held recently at the Rupert Elks Lodge by Mrs. LaPage Layton, general chairman.

Mrs. Robert Wolfe, service chairman, announced that the chapter will put up and decorate the Christmas tree at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Burley Nursing Home.

It was announced that the Xi Omega Chapter is working with Alpha Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, on the annual Stamp-a-thon for needy families of the area. The gifts will be delivered Dec. 23 by Santa, assisted by chapter members and husbands.

A program on "Christmas Tradition" was directed by Mrs. Warner. Each member spoke briefly on her family Christmas traditions. "The Littlest Angel" was read by Mrs. Warner.

The next regular meeting is Jan. 12 at the home of Mrs. Joe Adams, with Mrs. Perry as cohostess. Lessons will be given by Mrs. Wolfe and Mrs. Donald Worthington.

Chicago Charters Campaign To Rebuild Areas Of City

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago has charted a 15-year, $6-billion campaign to rebuild large areas of the city and to seek lasting solutions to its social and racial problems.

The long-range, comprehensive plan will carry the city through the year 2000 and includes the reshaping of virtually every area of its life and basic structure.

Hailed by Mayor Richard J. Daley as "a practical design for the city's future," it provides for better neighborhoods, more housing and schools, new parks and recreation facilities, more and faster transportation and a revitalized central core.

The plan was made up by the City Planning Commission.

Much of the cost, an estimated $400 million a year, will come from federal and state aid, Daley said. The program will double present expenditures for such improvements.

In the social sphere, the plan calls for measures to bring more white families back into the city, to open more job opportunities for all persons and to expand greatly the educational system at all levels.

It provides for open housing for all of Chicago's citizens and recommends that "fair housing" laws be adopted throughout the metropolitan area.

The plan envisions Chicago in 1980 as composed of more and younger families. It projects a rise in population to 3.7 million, including a nonwhite population of more than 1.5 million. But it maintains that general improvements in the city will attract more people, especially younger, middle-income families now gravitating toward the suburbs.

—Reduce the loss of white families while accommodating the growth of the nonwhite population under the city's fair housing law.

—The use of redevelopment and conservation programs to achieve racial balance in neighborhoods threatened by massive racial transition.

—Local improvement plans to encourage established families to remain in their neighborhoods.

—The provision of "the broadest possible choice of housing cost and type to meet the needs of people, including low-income families and the elderly."

The problems of the near West Side, the location of the City Planning Commission's first specific area proposals, are as varied and complex as any in Chicago.

It was the site of racial rioting last summer and its southern and western sections are largely Negro.

Red Chinese Official Hits Two Leaders

TOKYO (AP) — A high Red Chinese official has denounced President Liu Shao-chi and party Secretary-General Ten Hsiao-ping as propagators of "Khrushchev's thoughts," a Japanese press report said today.

It was the first time that Liu and Teng were criticized openly by a ranking member of the Communist party hierarchy, and indicated the power struggle in Peking is becoming intense.

The Tokyo paper Asahi in a dispatch from Peking said the attack came Tuesday by Tao Chu, a member of the Politburo, No. 4 man in the hierarchy, and head of the propaganda department of the cultural committee. Tuo's speech was placed on wall posters in Peking.

Liu and Teng have been assailed repeatedly in wall posters of the Red Guards, the militant teen-age vanguard of the current purge in China. But there has been no previous public statement that linked the denunciations with any high offical.

Gary Lewis Waits For Draft Word

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Comedian Jerry Lewis' son Gary — who makes $250,000 a year as a rock 'n roll bandleader—awaited word today on his chances of becoming an $80-a-month Army private.

The 21-year-old singer showed up for induction Tuesday with a letter from his physician. Afterward an Army spokesman said, "The induction has been delayed on the basis of new evidence. A new examination has been ordered to verify the evidence."

Syria Rejects Demand By Iraq Firm For Arbitration

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Syria today rejected a demand by the Iraq Petroleum Co. for arbitration of the transit royalties dispute which has stopped the flow of about 20 per cent of the oil Europe gets from the Middle East.

Zuhair Khani, Syrian minister for premiership affairs, told a news conference the Syrian government would consider the arbitration request only when the company pays $11 million Syria is demanding in extra royalties for the first nine months of 1966.

A company statement issued Tuesday night in London invoked the 1955 agreement between Syria and the company. It said the company had requested the Syrian government to refer the dispute to arbitration by a panel of two experts who would in turn name an umpire.

If arbitration failed, the company added, the dispute should then be referred to the International Court of Justice at The Hague.

Khani said his government's impounding of the firm's assets in Syria to force payment of the extra royalties "constitutes an exercise of the country's national sovereignty in the treatment of commercial firms operating on its territory."

"The company must first abide by the country's laws and pay under reservation, and then seek to arbitrate the dispute," he declared.

Khani said the arbitration might take as long as five years, and "we cannot tolerate having our just demands for the payment of royalties delayed that long."

The government cut off the pipeline across Syria from the Iraqi fields to the ports of Banias, Syria, and Tripoli, Lebanon, on Monday and Tuesday. Khani warned that unless the company paid up, the continued stoppage would not only "endanger the firm's interests but would also "imperil its entire fate."

He added if the stoppage continued it would eventually lead to the cessation of production from the Iraqi fields. The Iraqi government could not "give the company the opportunity to jeopardize one of the greatest sources of national income for Iraq," Khani said.

In addition to 42 million tons by pipeline, Iraq also sends about 20 million tons of oil to Europe by tanker from the Persian Gulf. The company said it supplied roughly 20 per cent of Western Europe's 1965 estimated imports of 276 million tons.

While a prolonged pipeline shutdown could hurt Western Europe, it would not apparently be too damaging. The Middle East, including Iran, produces more than 400 million tons of oil yearly and much of this finds its way to Europe.

Bible Stories Printed In Newspaper

LONDON (AP) — A paper specializing in age-old news will make its appearance here this month with headlines such as:

"Moses returns from Mt. Sinai, smashes tablets of the law."

Its sponsors say that taking Old Testament stories and rewriting them in the newspaper language and headlines of the space age is an ingenious method of teaching the Bible's message.

The paper is called the Jerusalem Chronicles and the News of the Past.

Twenty-six issues of the paper — folded and bound between stiff covers — make up the first volume.

It is the work of Polly Van Leer in Jerusalem. Two British businessmen are bringing it out here.

One of the partners, Bertram Olivestone, said: "My colleague, Norman Passas, was given a copy while on a recent holiday in Israel. He was very impressed with it and brought home a copy and gave it to his 9-year-old daughter, Ruth.

"The child became so fascinated with the stories that she couldn't put them down. She read them right through. That decided us and we've decided to bring in 25,000 copies of the bound papers as a first shipment."

Mrs. Kennedy Files Suit On Magazine

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy has served a summons on Look magazine and the publishing firm of Harper & Row in an apparent effort to block publication of a book about her late husband's death.

Author of the book, "Death of a President," is William Manchester who returned from Europe Tuesday. He said he was "not informed on what is happening" but was "puzzled by the disturbance."

William Attwood, editor-in-chief of Look, acknowledged receipt of the summons Tuesday but said the magazine was going ahead with its plan to serialize the book.

Mrs. Kennedy chose Manchester to record the events of the assassination "in the interest of accuracy" but later was reported disturbed by his use of some of her personal recollections in the book.

A source close to the Kennedy family said objections to the book centered on a section which implied that the Kennedys did not care for President Johnson. The source said it was feared this could create insurmountable tensions between the two political clans.

Harper & Row had scheduled publication of "Death of a President" for March, but announced last weekend the date had been advanced to April because of revisions by the author.

Rockwell Is Invited To ISU Campus

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP) — The Idaho State University student Social Committee has initiated steps to invite George Lincoln Rockwell, head of the American Nazi party, to speak on campus on Washington's birthday, Feb. 22.

The committee acted Tuesday to extend the invitation to Rockwell.

Campus sources said Rockwell would be in the Pocatello area on Washington's birthday and had indicated he would be available to appear on campus for a $150 fee and "police protection."

Washington's birthday, a Wednesday, is a normal class day at ISU.

In the past, the Social Committee has hosted controversial speakers on political and economic questions.

Last month the Student Senate passed a resolution inviting extremist groups — such as the American Nazi and Communist parties — to organize campus chapters. But the resolution still needs the approval of the State Board of Education.

Blue Pencil Is Won By Bob Day

Other speakers were Walt Thomas, "Just a Passing Thought;" Dr. Bill Dean, "The Tradition of the Christmas Season," and Homer Robert, "Building a Speech."

Dr. John Carter and Doug Douglas won blue pencils for table topics. Dr. Lucien Laferriere was table topic chairman, choosing "Internal Affairs" as the topic.

Dr. Jensen also gave the invocation. General critic was Dr. Harry Crawford and Wilmer Wilson was grammarian.

Shoshone Scouts Learn Of Conservation First Hand

SHOSHONE — Boy Scouts of the Shoshone area have been taken on tours of major conservation projects under sponsorship of the Bureau of Land Management.

Shoshone District Manager, William T. Mabbutt, reports that 20 boys representing troops 57, 58 and 103 took part in the program.

The field day featured visits to various range and wildlife improvement projects on federal lands in the Timmerman Hills area.

BLM personnel explained waterfowl and sagegrouse developments completed this year on Sonner's Flat, four miles east of Highway 93 at the southern extent of the Picabo Hills. A large dam impounds a large shallow body of water which is well suited to waterfowl nesting.

In addition, several islands have been constructed in the hope of encouraging goose nesting in the area. The water and surrounding brush cover provides excellent sagegrouse habitat.

A stop on the Richfield canal was used to show the scouts the fresh water shrimp mainly responsible for the high fish production in that body of water.

The remainder of the tour was spent in the Magic Resource Conservation Area which lies between Magic Reservoir and Highway 93. The boys saw many of the water developments and flood control installations, while the value of these improvements to livestock and wildlife was explained.

Established seedings were examined and the boys watched as heavy equipment plowed the rocky brushland for a new seeding.

The second excursion was aimed at teaching some of the methods of erosion control and to give the boys the opportunity to do some actual construction of control structures. The day was spent in an area approximately four miles southwest of Bellevue where some 7,000 acres were burned late in August.

The scouts saw how water bars were constructed on the firebreaks used in containing the fire, to pool and spread the water on areas where it will do no harm. Unburned areas were compared with the burn and the effect of vegetation on runoff and erosion was explained.

The main activity of the day was the construction of check dams in a gully within the burned area. Already well formed before the fire, the gully could be expected to increase rapidly with all the vegetation removed.

Four dams were constructed using from four to 16 seed sacks, half filled with soil. The sacks were laid across the gully in a pattern similar to brick construction. The outside ends of the dams were raised to force the water over the center and prevent it from washing around the ends. Rocks were placed below the dam to prevent the overflow from undercutting the dam.

The area distributed by the construction was then seeded to grass and raked by hand.

Archbishops' Resignations Are Accepted

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI has accepted the resignation for reasons of health of two U.S. archbishops, the Vatican announced today.

They are the Most Rev. Msgr. Edward Howard of Portland, Ore., and the Most Rev. Msgr. John Mark Gannon of Erie, Pa.

The Pope named the Most Rev. Msgr. Robert Joseph Dwyer to replace the archbishop of Portland, and the Most Rev. Msgr. John F. Whealon as new bishop of Erie.

The new archbishop of Portland has been bishop of Reno, Nev. The new bishop of Erie has been auxiliary to Bishop Edward Francis Hoban of Cleveland, Ohio.

Archbishop designate Dwyer was named the second bishop of Reno in 1952. He was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 1, 1908 and was ordained June 11, 1932. He was editor of the Intermountain Catholic Register, and diocesan superintendent of schools at Salt Lake City, then rector of the Cathedral of the Madeleine in Salt Lake City from 1948 until his appointment as bishop of Reno.

Special Guests Have Trouble Getting To White House Fete

By KELLY SMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—What's a guy do when he is snowbound miles from Washington only hours before he is to be a guest at a White House dinner?

Panic, says bandleader Duke Ellington. Take a 200-mile taxi ride, says producer Stanley Young. Eat a tunafish sandwich, says director Mike Nichols.

It happened to all of them — and some 30 more — before Tuesday night's Christmas dinner President and Mrs. Johnson gave in honor of the National Council on the Arts.

It turned out to be a merry holiday party.

Leonard Bernstein was there sipping champagne. Lynda Bird Johnson waltzed with Hubert H. Humphrey. The President cornered actor Gregory Peck. To talk politics?

Peck has been suggested as the Democrat's answer to Republican Ronald Reagan, also an actor and newly-elected governor of California. "A joke," Peck says of such suggestions.

President Johnson invited the musicians, artists, actors and producers to the White House to thank them for helping rid the country of "dime store culture."

"There is hardly a nation not enriched by our culture today," he said. He pledged government effort "to develop our artistic talents to the fullest, to distribute the fruits of that talent to all Americans, rich and poor."

About the time the President was speaking, the Stanley Youngs of New York drove up at the White House after a taxi ride from New York. They paid the $150 fare, rushed inside and ate on silver trays in the Red Room.

Like others, the Youngs discovered too late that heavy snowfall had grounded all planes to Washington.

Ellington took a train from Bluefield, W.Va. and after no sleep for 36 hours arrived in Washington without his dress tuxedo. He called the White House from the station at 7:30 and was told, "Come as you are." He did, in a blue shirt and black suit.

Director Nichols started out from Los Angeles, was detained in Pittsburgh, and finally arrived at 10 p.m., in time for the afterdinner entertainment of a play and chamber music, champagne and dancing.

CONCERT SET

RUPERT — The traditional program of Christmas music will be presented by the Minico High School chorus groups at 8 p.m. Thursday at the high school auditorium.

Antipoverty Manpower Plan Given

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department and the Office of Economic Opportunity announced today the creation of a new jointly administered anti-poverty manpower program.

The announcement appeared to be a solution to the intra-agency battle in the OEO over the transfer of several new programs from the antipoverty agency to the Labor Department.

Under the newly announced procedure, the Labor Department will operate the program but the OEO will monitor, evaluate and be responsible for the budget.

In addition, local Community Action Agencies responsible to the OEO will develop and sponsor the individual work programs at the local level.

Man Deferred From Service To Battle For Wife's Life

By JACQUELINE KORONA

UTICA, Mich. (AP) — Thanks to his draft board, Tom Michaels will be at home for Christmas — and for a long time after that.

Draft Board 303 ruled Tuesday that Michaels, whose wife Mary needs him at home because of a kidney ailment, can have a 3A hardship deferment.

"I feel bad for the people in Vietnam," Michaels said. "I feel bad in a way about getting out of going there."

The plight of Michaels, 22, and his 23-year-old wife drew national attention when he told his draft board he couldn't fight for his country because he was fighting for his wife's life.

Mrs. Michaels had suffered a complete kidney failure. Doctors say her blood must be cleansed twice a week on a special kidney machine or she would die.

Hospital bills — now totalling $3,600 — piled up. The couple hoped to buy their own kidney machine, a $6,000 device, so Mrs. Michaels could be treated at home instead of at the hospital.

When Michaels quit college and went to work as a painter to earn some money, the draft board reclassified him 1A. His first appeal failed. The second succeeded.

Other persons have chipped in to help the beleaguered couple.

There was the letter from an Army sergeant in Vietnam who didn't sign his name. The sergeant said his wife had died from the same kidney ailment Mrs. Michaels suffers. He said Michaels shouldn't worry about "all the red tape," that he would get the deferment.

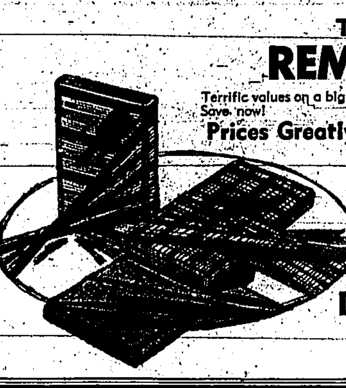

And there were the people who collected money, $6,600 in all, which will enable the Michaels to buy the kidney machine.

"Where but in this country could this happen?" asked Michaels. "My wife would probably be dead if we were anywhere but here."

Diane Jones will do a Christmas dance. The high school chorus will sing "Ave Maria" and "Little Drummer Boy." Hanna Akers will sing "I Wonder As I Wander." The beginning and intermediate bands will play "Jolly Old St. Nick" and "Silent Night."

A high school triple trio will sing "Winter Wonderland" and "Silver Bells." The high school band will play "Holiday Sleigh Ride," "Greensleeves" and "Jingle Bells Rhapsody."

The finale will be a "Christmas Sing Along" with all groups participating. The high school chorus will sing the recessional.

Accompanists will be Hanna Akers, Debbie Waite, Bunny Brown and Mrs. Snapp. Colored slides will be shown as the Christmas songs are sung.

Worthwhile

HANKSVILLE, Utah (AP) — Students at the Hanksville Elementary school started a "buckle up for safety" campaign to have seat belts installed in the local school bus.

They begin writing a newspaper and selling advertising in this little, isolated, southern Utah dessert community of 100 people to raise money to buy the belts for the Wayne County School District.

Editorializes 12-year-old co-editor Jimmy Scoop Jackson in announcing the campaign in the current issue of the new Hanksville Herald: "Seat belts would keep the kids in their seats and out of the driver's hair even if there were no accidents."

Average Briton Is Displeased With Men Governing His Country

By TOM A. CULLEN

LONDON (NEA) — The average Briton thinks the men governing his country today are the worst set of politicians of the century.

A survey by the London Daily Mail gives black eyes to both the Labor government headed by Prime Minister Harold Wilson and the Conservative party opposition led by Edward Heath.

The survey, which covered 1,500 miles and included interviews with people in their homes, factories and pubs, finds that hardly anyone respects Wilson as a man, though a small number admire his policies. As for Heath, he has failed utterly to register.

When members of the House of Commons voted before the last election to raise their own salaries, it was hoped that the Commons would attract higher caliber men. But this has not happened, in the opinion of most Britons interviewed.

A typical reaction: "The standard of the House of Commons is lower than it has ever been."

In contrast, there is a growth of what the Daily Mail calls "British Gaullists"—people who long for a superman like France's President De Gaulle to cut through the mediocrity of politics and to get things done, even at the expense of democratic rights.

A majority of people, however, dislike equally the two alternatives that have been put forward as the new role for Britain—closer association with America, or joining the European Common Market. In many ways Britain, in its present transition period, is more insular and isolationist than ever.

Foreigners often criticize the British for being work-shy. Obviously, they do not enjoy their jobs, nor do they take pride in their work, it is argued. In reply to these criticisms, a Hertfordshire worker points out "If Chippendale had made nothing but right back legs of chairs he, too, would have been bored."

"Only those fortunate enough to obtain executive positions can ever hope to be stimulated by their work," he adds.

Lack of incentive is another reason given by British workers for "soldiering" on the job. "Whenever I'm asked to work overtime on a Saturday I stop to think whether it will be worth the effort after income tax is deducted," one man questioned said.

In a month of interviewing, the only person the Daily Mail found who took pride in his job was a salesman in Sleaford, Lincolnshire, and he was selling not a British product but a Dutch machine made in Austria.

Surprisingly, a great number of Britons, including factory workers, feel that a sharp dose of unemployment is just what this country needs to bring it to its senses. Commenting on the present credit squeeze which has sent jobless figures soaring, a Manchester toolmaker said, "I reckon everyone in this shop has started working harder since unemployment started to go up."

LUNCHEON SCHEDULED

FAIRFIELD — A Senior Citizens luncheon party directed by the Ruth and Naomi Society, will be held at noon Dec. 21 in the recreation room of the Community Church. All residents of the community who are at least 60 years old, regardless of church affiliation, are invited to attend.

SGT. CARNAHAN VISITS

KING HILL — Sgt. William Carnahan, South Carolina, is here on a 30-day furlough visiting his mother, Mrs. Ida Carnahan, and his sister, Mrs. Rodney Ruberry, and family. After his furlough he will be assigned to Panama.

The managing director of the same plant sums up what many Britons are thinking: "We don't want massive unemployment; that's no help to anyone. What we want is a steady, reasonable-sized pool of men out of work. Say about half a million —and it looks as if that's what we will have by Christmas."

Woman Heads Contracting Company

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — The 27-year-old boss of the Zimmerman Excavating Co. may be Ohio's prettiest contractor.

JoAnn Zimmerman, a former student at fashionable Bryn Mawr College, heads a contracting company in Mansfield inherited from her father, the late Joseph J. Zimmerman. Her mother is the firm's vice president.

Her decision to take over the company was made suddenly last February when her father died. But it was not surprising.

"I had wanted to go into the business when I was in school," she said, "but dad didn't feel it was the sort of thing a girl should do."

Had she really planned to prepare for contracting work she might have chosen engineering school rather than Bryn Mawr for two years. She did get a business administration degree from Ashland College.

Miss Zimmerman was in her third year of school teaching when she changed careers.

"It was a real rude awakening to learn how much I didn't know and I'm still learning," she said. She has 20 "teachers" in the men employes of the Zimmerman firm. She credits them with helping her through her "initiation period."

CHIC CONTRACTOR, JoAnn Zimmerman, poses in front of a pile of rubble and a big crane operated by two men, symbolizing her role as boss of a Mansfield excavating firm. At 27, the former school teacher is learning the contracting business, bossing 20 men employes. (AP wirephoto)

Strong Lungs Save Life Of Pilot

MUSKEGON, Mich. (AP) — A Coast Guard rescue boat, two Civil Air Patrol planes and a healthy pair of lungs saved Robert P. Tromblee's life Tuesday.

Tromblee, of Mequon, Wis., was flying his twin-engine plane over Lake Michigan when he discovered a fire aboard. He radioed the Muskegon air tower that he was ditching.

The Coast Guard boat and Civil Air Patrol planes went into action.

Tromblee hopped out of his plane. His life raft's special inflating device failed.

So Tromblee blew and blew until the raft was solid enough to support him.

He sent up flares, the planes radioed his position to the Coast Guard and they picked him up.

Airline, Pilots Reach Agreement

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Settlement has been reached between National Air Lines and members of the Air Line Pilots Association, averting a strike set for Thursday.

The pilots will get substantial improvements under the new contract, said Leverett Edwards, National Mediation Board member. Details were withheld until the agreement is made formal in writing.

National, based in Miami, flies a transcontinental route from California south to Florida, and between Boston and Key West.

Racial Issue Enters Into Grant Okay

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Board of Education has withheld acceptance of a $90,000 federal grant to provide symphony concerts for 30,000 underprivileged children because, it said Tuesday, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra is not racially integrated.

In balking at acceptance, the board said it would attempt to thrash out the racial issue with symphony officials.

For what it said was the same reason, the board also refused acceptance of a $3,750 federal grant to provide opera presentations for about 4,000 pupils.

The Rev. Darneau Stewart, a Negro board member, objected to the proposed concerts because he said the orchestra does not meet the integration standards required of other school system suppliers.

The same objection was raised to the Piccolo Opera Co., which would produce the school opera presentations.

Norman Drachler, acting school superintendent, said the orchestra and opera company had not been asked to file integration compliance statements because they were invited to perform and not asked to bid on the projects.

Robert B. Semple, president of the orchestra board of directors, said later that "we have tried to hire a number of Negro artists" but none had qualified in competition for employment.

"We would have been happy," Semple said, "to have hired any Negro musician who qualified."

Howard Harrington, general manager, pointed out that Everett Lee, a Negro, will conduct the orchestra's regular concerts Thursday and Friday nights this week.

Toys Bear Stamp Of Era In Which We Live

By HELEN HENNESSY

NEW YORK (NEA) — When spacemen invade your home on Christmas, toy battlemen throw hand grenades across the breakfast table, a Molotov cocktail lands on the roast turkey and Susie's new doll sets the living room couch just take an aspirin and resign yourself to Toyland '66.

There's no point in looking back with nostalgia to your own doll that didn't do anything or dad's electric trains. Toys, like fashions, bear the stamp of the era in which we live.

Space suits are simply up-to-date "dress-up" toys. Dad had his cowboy outfit. Grenades and Molotov cocktails are more in keeping with the times than a musket would be. And you would not want an inadequately equipped toy soldier around.

How can a cap gun compare in efficiency with a ray gun? And as for dolls—why have one that just lies around like a lump when you can get one that cries, wets, pouts, teethes or frugs? You can even find one that asks questions in case you don't get enough trouble of that kind from the kids.

The doll crop season boasts the "realer-than-real" doll. Claimed most realistic is a teething-baby-with-a-miserable expression, showing her first tooth.

Most of the homemaking toys for this season really work. Vacuum cleaners clean up, laundry equipment washes and dries and an "easy bake" oven produces its own honey cakes.

Municipal services are on an upswing in popularity in the truck sector of toyland. A new fire rescue truck of heavy gauge steel has a turbine cab and a round attachment which, without batteries, simulates the purr of a giant motor.

Laughter takes the spotlight in the game sector of Santa's workshop this year, based on the theory that kids need relaxation from the rigors of homework just as dad does from his job. In another era if Johnny was tired from doing homework his mother would have felt he was too tired to play games. But we live today. A card game, called Bird Brain (just for laughs) is played in a saucer-shaped playing area flanked by 3D birds.

That's not everything. But it's a good part-of-what-you'll-find around for Christmas. The new toys are better equipped than their older counterparts, perhaps. But they're still just dolls, trucks, games and toy soldiers.

Today's Market and Financial Report

Stocks

2:30 p.m. Summary

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market edged into the plus column in moderate trading late this afternoon.

Volume for the day was estimated at 7.2 million shares, the slowest pace of the week, compared with 9.84 million Tuesday.

The market picked up a little strength after having been slightly lower through the morning.

Changes of key issues were mostly fractional with a few ranging to a point or so.

Rubbers, aircrafts, electronics, utilities, nonferrous metals, chemicals, airlines and building materials were mostly higher. Steels, motors and rails were lower.

Superior Oil advanced more than 5 points, Fairchild Camera was up more than 4 and Texas Instruments was ahead more than 3.

Corning Glass and Owens-Corning lost about 2 points.

Grain

CHICAGO (AP) — All Grain futures and soybean contracts were generally lower today in active dealings on the Chicago Board of Trade, with corn leading the downturn.

Trade sources said the biggest influence in the break was liquidation by longs.

Corn turned downward at the start and at one time nearly three cents was represented between the day's high and low in the December delivery.

Wheat apparently eased lower in a sympathetic reaction to corn.

Carlot receipts were estimated at: corn 78 cars, barley 13, soybeans 5; no wheat, oats or rye.

At the close, wheat was ⅞ to 1⅛ cents a bushel lower, December $1.76⅜; corn 1¼-3 cents a bushel lower, December $1.39⅞-¾; oats 1⅛ lower to ½ higher, December 75½ cents; rye ½ lower to ¼ higher, December $1.23¾ asked; soybeans 2 cents lower to ¾ cent higher, January $2.99⅞-¾.

Hopes, plans and the number of housing starts were caught in an inferno of interest rates.

The peak of the most recent housing boom — it seems to be either boom or bust in housing — was in 1963, when 1.58 million private, nonfarm residential units were built.

In 1964 the total still was 1.53 million units, falling but still robust. By 1965, however, the decline was evident. Only 1.48 million units were erected.

This year the total will be about 1.2 million, but that figure doesn't tell the entire story. Housing starts late this year fell to a yearly average of only 848,000 units, the lowest in 20 years.

In itself, this drop is precipitous. Consider, though, that it came while affluence was growing, while new family units were being formed, while population was increasing.

About the only saving explanation is that there was a decline — not relative but actual — in the number of young married couples in the home-buying ages of 30 to 34. But this couldn't be the entire answer.

The decline this year was in direct proportion to rising interest rates, some of which soared to their highest in three or four decades.

Another factor was competition between money lenders. Funds were withdrawn from savings and loan associations, the traditional mortgage suppliers, for higher returns elsewhere.

Some builders found themselves having houses on their hands for as long as a year. Some small builders went out of business. Construction crews of larger builders were broken up.

Builders of duplex dwellings have found potential renters standing in line hoping to be favorably recommended to future buyers. But the buyers weren't standing in line.

In fact, the demand for rental apartments is now stronger in some areas than it has been at any time in recent years. Vacancy rates have fallen, evidence that people are renting rather than buying.

Purchases of perhaps as many as 400,000 units have been postponed, based on projections that show normal demand this year would have been about 1.6 million units.

With this evidence of a one-industry depression amidst abundance, the federal government has now stepped in to make funds available.

First, ceilings were posted on interest rates. Savings and loan associations, which provide 40 per cent of the mortgage money, were given ceilings higher than most. This should cause an inflow of money.

The administration then announced that the Federal National Mortgage Association would make $250 million in special aid available for construction of low- and medium - cost homes.

In addition, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board plans to make $500 million of home financing available in the next few months.

Questions still remain, however, and the most important of them is this: Can the housing industry thrive, despite the recent help, in a tight money economy? Many housing people think not.

As the industry stalls, the demand builds and may eventually result in a housing boom. Although cautious forecasters see the doldrums remaining in 1967, others see an upturn in the latter part of next year.

The National Association of Home Builders, in fact, feels that there will be an upturn by midyear 1967 and that 1968 possibly will be the best housing year ever.

The Daily Investor

By WILLIAM A. DOYLE

Q. You mentioned that a person who owns stock is allowed to "exclude" $100 of dividend income when he files his Federal income tax return each year and not pay taxes on that $100. Since dividends and interest on savings accounts fall in the same category, can I get the same deduction on my savings account interest?

A. Nope. All savings account interest is fully taxable as ordinary income. And this applies even when institutions such as savings banks and savings and loan associations call the payments on their accounts "dividends" or "interest dividends."

Although you and many other people feel that cash dividends paid on stock and the interest paid on savings accounts are similar, there is a basic difference as far as the tax situation is concerned.

When a company makes a profit, it pays corporate income tax to the Federal government. For most companies that tax is 48 per cent. What is left, after the tax bite, is the company's net profit.

Then, when the company passes on part of its profit to its stockholders — the owners of the company — in the from of dividends, the money is taxed again. The stockholders must pay tax on it. That's double taxation, pure and simple.

The $100 exclusion recognizes this and makes the second tax bite smaller. Each taxpayer is allowed to exclude $100 of dividends he receives each year from "qualified U. S. corporations" — meaning just about all companies in this country. While you must report all of your cash dividend, you exclude $100 worth each year and don't pay taxes on that $100.

For a husband and wife filing a joint tax return, the exclusion becomes $200 a year — provided that the stocks on which the dividends are paid are jointly owned or that each owns stocks on which $100 of dividends are paid.

With interest, however, the story is different. The bank or savings and loan association does not pay Federal income taxes on the interest it pays out. Its tax is based on the money it has left, after payment of that inteerest.

You must report your savings account interest as ordinary income and pay tax on it. But you and the other depositors pay taxes on that interest. The banks and savings and loan associations don't. No double taxation.

Q. I have received some stock as a gift. Do I have to report this on my income tax return?

A. The gift? No. The dividends you will receive on the stock? Yes — assuming that cash dividends are paid on that stock.

A gift is not counted as income. You don't have to pay tax on it or even report it on your income tax return.

Q. I started buying Series E. U. S. Savings Bonds in 1942. I have about $6,000 worth. Do I still receive interest on all my bonds? If so, at what rate?

A. I do wish I could write this, once and for all. But letters keep coming in about it. All E bonds outstanding — in the hands of the public — continue to accumulate (build up) interest. Since Dec. 1, 1965, the interest rate on bonds held to their next maturity has been 4.15 per cent. And the U. S. Treasury Department keeps extending the maturities. The earliest E bonds — issued in 1941 — are now in their second "extended maturity period."

NBC, CBS To Cover Super Bowl At $2 Million; AFL Title Game Reset Jan. 1

NEW YORK (AP)—The Super Bowl game between the champions of the National Football League and the American Football League will be played Sunday, Jan. 15, at the Los Angeles Coliseum with joint television coverage by the Columbia Broadcasting System and the National Broadcasting Co. The rights for the game brought a reported $2 million. Under the agreement, the game will be carried exclusively in three subsequent years on an alternating basis with CBS, NBC and CBS in that order. The total payments for the four-year agreement, running through 1970, will be $9.5 million. The rights will be worth $2.5 million each year after the first year.

In order to hold the Super Bowl on Jan. 15, the AFL title game has been moved from Dec. 26 to Sunday, Jan. 1, the same date as the NFL championship game.

Both the AFL and NFL games are to be played in the home parks of the Eastern champions. That will be either Boston or Buffalo in the AFL and Dallas or St. Louis in the NFL.

The AFL game will start at 1 p.m. EST, with the Eastern winner taking on the Kansas City Chiefs. The NFL game will start at 4 p.m., EST, with the Eastern winner facing the Green Bay Packers.

Both title games will be televised, the AFL game by NBC and the NFL game by CBS.

Rozelle also announced a rescheduling of the All-Star games of both leagues. The AFL All-Star game will be played Saturday, Jan. 21, at the Oakland Coliseum. The NFL Pro Bowl game will be played Jan. 22 at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

The Playoff Bowl, between the two NFL runner-up teams, will be played as scheduled Jan. 8 at Miami in the Orange Bowl.

The capacity of the Coliseum for the Super Bowl will be 93,000. A sellout would assure pro football's first $3 million gate. Of the gross receipts after deduction of expenses and rental, more than 70 per cent will go to the players in the form of player shares and payments to the player benefit plans in both leagues.

Sunday, Jan. 1 — AFL title game at Boston or Buffalo, 1 p.m. EST (NBC); NFL title game at Dallas or St. Louis, 4 p.m. EST (CBS).

Jurgenson Gets NFL Offensive Honors

NEW YORK (AP) — The score was tied at 31-31 in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas. Quarterback Sonny Jurgensen ran two plays into the line for the Washington Redskins deep in Dallas territory. The clock was running when Sonny strolled over to talk to the official with the clock as the seconds ticked away. Finally, with eight seconds to play, Sonny called for the time out. In came Charlie Gogolak, the soccer-style place kicker, to boot a 29-yard field goal that beat Dallas 34-31 and delayed, for at least one week, the Cowboys' attempt to clinch the Eastern Conference title.

Jurgensen's cool performance under heavy pressure was enough to earn him The Associated Press' designation as offensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

The veteran quarterback completed 18 of 33 passes for 308 yards, including an 11-yard TD to Jerry Smith and a 65-yarder to Charley Taylor in the final quarter. Earlier he connected with Bobby Mitchell on an 11-yard toss.

Dallas appeared to have the game locked up until Sonny started to hit and the Redskins started to swap touchdowns with the Cowboys in the final period. Then came the winning field goal.

Jurgensen, slimmed down to meet the requirements of new coach Otto Graham, has been having a great year, especially since Graham moved Taylor to outside receiver.

Taylor has caught 64 passes for 1,045 yards and 10 touchdowns, flanker Mitchell 54 for 858 and nine TDs and tight end Smith 47 for 549 and four TDs. The three men have caught 165 passes for 23 touchdowns of the 24 thrown by Jurgensen. Each of the three caught one Sunday.

Filer Thumps Valley 40-20 In Wrestling

FILER — Filer outpinned Valley 5-4 Tuesday night and took three weight classes by forfeit for a 40-20 wrestling victory.

Filer will host Wood River and Valley will be at Jerome Thursday night.

Four Guide Pirates Over Gooding State

HAGERMAN — Hagerman got all the points it needed from four players Tuesday night as the Pirates thumped a smaller, but scrappy, Gooding State squad 86-46 in a Northside Conference game.

Roger Laughlin, Fred Gaston, Pat Madarita and LeMoyne combined for 51 points. Almost all shooting during the game was from the field, as only 14 fouls were committed between the two teams.

Tar Heels Upset Kentucky 64-55

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Sixth-ranked North Carolina jumped ahead of a cold shooting Kentucky team, then used a snail's pace offense for a 64-55 college basketball upset Tuesday night.

With Larry Miller pacing the offense, North Carolina went ahead after 1:40 in the first half and fourth-ranked Kentucky never caught up.

Kentucky tried a man-to-man defense in the second period, but the Tar Heels spread-offense made it almost useless. North Carolina hit 25 of 40 field goals for 62.5 per cent while Kentucky, connected only 23 of 61 for 37.7 per cent.

Hurts Won't Affect Play, Packers Say

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Green Bay Packer coaches expect team injuries to have little effect on their Sunday game with the Los Angeles Rams, a spokesman says.

Quarterback Bart Starr suffered a rib injury last week against the Baltimore Colts and sat out the second half, but will play against the Rams if he recovers sufficiently. Zeke Bratkowski will be at the helm otherwise.

At guard, Fuzzy Thurston is ready to play again, but the spokesman said Monday he may not start. Replacement, Zotele Gillingham played the full game against the Colts and will be ready to step in again.

Elijah Pitts will open again at halfback, even though Paul Hornung is well again, and Jim Taylor will hold down the fullback spot. But rookies Donny Anderson and Jim Grabowski are expected to play.

Dolphins Sign Two Players

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Miami Dolphins announced Tuesday the signing of two college football players from the Carolinas.

The American Football League club acquired Bill Darnall, defensive back from the University of North Carolina, and Don Williams, a defensive tackle, for Wofford College in Spartanburg, S.C.

Twins Bounced Off Team, Transfer Plans Heard

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — "Now we'll have to look around in earnest," quarterback Jim Del Gaizo said Tuesday after he and his identical twin, John, were bounced from Syracuse University's Gator Bowl-bound football team.

The university said the sophomore athletes from Revere, Mass., had been asked by Coach Ben Schwartzwalder to turn in their uniforms after it was learned they planned to transfer to another university next year.

"We just can't have boys training with us who are planning to transfer right after the bowl game," Schwartzwalder said. "Maybe I am old fashioned, but I have always felt that loyalty was a virtue."

"We were just scratching around, there wasn't anything definite yet," Jim Del Gaizo told The Associated Press. "I don't know how it got around so fast. Now we'll have to get serious."

The 6-foot-2, 200-pounder, who set a Syracuse passing record of four touchdowns against Maryland in his first starting assignment, spent most of the season as understudy to Rick Cassatta, although he started in two other games.

During the season Del Gaizo completed 34 of 83 pass attempts for 418 yards and five touchdowns. Ten passes were intercepted.

Jim Del Gaizo said he and his brother had offered to remain with the team for the Gator Bowl game Dec. 31 with Tennessee "but the coach took the view it would be bad for the team if we weren't coming back next season."

"I respect him for his decision," Del Gaizo said, "I can't argue with him there."

He said he and his brother planned to attend the same university but declined to identify it.

"There is nothing definite yet," he said.

Mitchell Back On Graham's Good Guy List

After the Redskins' 34-31 victory over Dallas, in which Mitchell scored on an 11-yard touchdown pass, Graham went out of the way to end speculation that he is disenchanted with Mitchell.

Graham said emphatically the 31-year-old flanker is not available for trade and voiced doubt that he would retire at the end of the season.

"Right now he's a tremendous football player," Graham told newsmen. "I'd like to see Bobby play another two or three or four years and I would like to have him playing for us.

Graham, the freshman coach whose 7-6 record is the best in the past 11 years for the Redskins, discounted the hints by Mitchell that he will retire.

"If I had to bet, I'd bet Bobby will be coming back," he said. "He would have to sell a lot of insurance policies to make the money he's making."

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco 49ers announced Tuesday the signing of Don Parker, 247-pound defensive tackle and linebacker this year at the University of Virginia. He also was co-captain of the team.

Barry Running Away In NBA Scoring Race

NEW YORK (AP) — Rick Barry of San Francisco is running away from the pack in the National Basketball Association scoring derby but Philadelphia's three-man entry, led by Wilt Chamberlain, is keeping the 76ers atop the team standings.

Barry averaged 40.6 points in five games last week, according to latest NBA figures, and now leads runner-up Chamberlain by over 400 points in the individual scoring race. The San Francisco hotshot's 39.1 average in 29 starts is the highest mark at this stage of the season since 1961.

Philadelphia, sparked by Chamberlain, Hal Greer and Chet Walker, Nos. 2, 4 and 6 in the individual point race, is the highest-scoring team and its Eastern Division-leading won-lost mark is by far the best in the circuit. The 76ers, averaging 125.3 points-per-game, have dropped only three of 29 starts.

UCLA, Kentucky Have Easy Slates, According To Professor's Analysis

By DICK OTTE

Columbus Dispatch Sport Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — UCLA will play a basketball schedule easier than 86 other major colleges this season.

Kentucky is involved in a card the caliber of which is surpassed by 164 other teams.

Rhode Island, for example, plays it a lot tougher than Kentucky. In fact, only 41 other teams have a more demanding schedule than the Rhode Island Rams.

Professor Wise teaches a course in statistics and uses them in what he calls "an objective preseason analysis of the strength of the basketball schedules as played by 233 selected National Collegiate Athletic Association colleges and universities."

Wise uses the ratings of "top teams" compiled by the experts in assigning "power points." Computing the points shows the ruggedness of the schedule. His system even makes allowance for such things as where the game is played.

If Lew Alcindor and his mates, who are virtually conceded the national title at UCLA for three years, rate far down the list and if Texas Western's reigning NCAA champs are no better than 52nd in schedule difficulty, who has the hardest way to go? Michigan State?

No. It's the team the Spartans beat 103-68 last Saturday: Wichita State.

Wichita plays nine other rated teams (six of them twice) this season and the Shockers schedule packs a shocking 391 power points. UCLA's schedule has 160 points, Michigan State's 117 and Kentucky's 93.

Wise's system lists point values for all 47 teams he found mentioned in any of the preseason ratings. Home courts, tournaments and similar factors are taken into account.

First Place Patriots Feel Like Champs

"We now feel like champions," high-scoring Gino Cappelletti said in the wake of the Patriots' 38-14 victory at Houston Sunday. "We didn't freeze after falling behind 7-0. We had the composure of a champion — and it's a feeling that goes a long way."

The Patriots strengthened their hold on the Eastern lead, but need a victory or a tie against the Jets at New York Saturday to be sure of the title. A victory by runner-up Buffalo over Denver and a Boston loss would give the Bills the crown.

Despite a 24-24 tie with the Jets earlier in the season at Boston, the Patriots are confident of finishing with a victory and earning a shot at home against Kansas City, the Western champion, for the AFL crown.

Weber Trims Lumberjacks

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP) — Weber State displayed a well-balanced scoring attack Tuesday night and led all the way in defeating Northern Arizona University 90-78 in a non-conference basketball game.

The Wildcats led at halftime 41-34, mainly behind the scoring of Nolan Archibald, who canned nine of 17 points.

Trojans Whip Slumping Solons 55-49

GOODING — Wendell, after losing its first three games of the season, bounced back Tuesday night with a 55-49 victory over slumping Gooding in a rough and tumble contest.

With just over two minutes left in the game, Gooding had pulled to within two points, but the Trojans used foul shots to retain the lead. The Trojans used foul shots to their advantage all during the second half.

After ending the first quarter one point behind Wendell, Gooding rallied in the second to move to a 32-25 edge. The Trojans, however came to life in the third and led going into the fourth quarter 46-41.

The Bruin Boosters will meet at 7 a.m. Thursday in the Elks Building basement.

Under discussion will be this weekend's basketball games with Boise and Caldwell.

Miss Casals Eliminated In Tennis Meet

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) —Fred Stolle, the U.S. national champion, and two other Australians advanced to the men's singles semifinals while Rosemary Casals of San Francisco was eliminated in the women's competition of the South Australian Tennis Championships Tuesday.

Miss Casals was bothered by wind, rain and slippery conditions in losing to Lesley Turner of Australia 6-2, 7-5 in a quarter-final match.

The American girl broke her racket when it slipped out of her hands in the second set. Then Miss Turner took Miss Casals' service to lead 6-5 and held her own to clinch the match.

Stolle ousted Graham Stilwell of Britain 6-3, 6-2, 6-3 while John Newcombe defeated Owen Davidson, another Australian Davis Cupper, 6-3, 6-2, 6-2.

Roche's victim was Ray Ruffels, who upset top foreign seed Arthur Ashe of Richmond, Va., earlier this week. Roche won 13-11, 6-4, 6-2.

Francoise Durr of France also advanced to the women's singles semifinals. She downed Karen Krantzke of Australia 6-2, 4-6, 6-4.

The match involving Nancy Richey of Dallas and Judy Tegart of Australia was postponed because of darkness. Miss Tegart won the first set 6-2, and the two were deadlocked at 4-4 in the second when play was stopped.

Kelly Leads In Three-Way Battle For Rushing Title

NEW YORK (AP) — Leroy Kelly of Cleveland leads by 81 yards but the race for the National Football rushing title is a three-man battle going into the final games of the season. With one game to go, Kelly has 1,122 yards and Dick Bass of Los Angeles 1,041. However, Gale Sayers, Chicago Bears' flash, is only seven behind Bass with 1,034. Kelly must run against the St. Louis Cardinals. Bass must take on the Green Bay Packers and Sayers faces the Minnesota Vikings in their last games this weekend.

Pat Studstill, Detroit flanker, has completed his season with 67 pass receptions and is threatened by Charley Taylor of Washington with 64 and Dave Parks of San Francisco with 61. Bob Hayes of Dallas needs 10 to catch up at 57. Taylor has become a real whiz since coach Otto Graham moved him from his running back position.

The scoring race goes down to the wire. Bruce Gossett of Los Angeles and Danny Villanueva of Dallas, a pair of field goal kickers, are tied for the lead with 102 points. Charlie Gogolak, whose kick gave Washington a victory over Dallas last week, is next with 101 points. Then comes Dan Reeves, Dallas running back, with 96 on 16 touchdowns.

St. Louis hogs the kick returns honors. Johnny Roland is the punt return leader with an average of 11.1 and Roy Shivers, also of the Cards has a 29.8 average on kickoff returns. Larry Wilson of St. Louis still has the most interceptions, nine.

Sports FROM ALL ANGLES

BY LARRY HOVEY
Times-News Sports Editor

College of Southern Idaho established itself as a basketball power Monday night and it was a pity that it did so in front of so few fans.

There wasn't a bad crowd there, we guess, with all things considered, but this one figured to be a mainliner and was touted as such.

Coach Ed Sutton has assembled quite a group on this CSI team and it seems quite unbelievable that, in the face of a 6-1 record, there weren't more people interested in Monday's game.

Coach Sutton plays a pure basketball game. His ideas of the game make it a team affair. His emphasis is largely on defense but the offense isn't left to chance. It is patterned and run with precision and persistence. It demands, and receives from this group of young men, great selflessness, hustle and ball handling. Monday's game was probably as "pure" an example of that tenet as any we have seen and in the past 10 years we've seen between 700 and 800 basketball games, from Bruneau-Bliss through Idaho-Idaho State.

Referee Jim Wallace, a basketball moonlighter from the single wing football division, made an appropriate statement after the first CSI game. "This college will really improve high school basketball in this area. Boys that we have considered good in the past now only have to come watch someone like (Howard) Humes play to see just how much they'll have to improve to make it on a basketball scholarship."

Ironically, this hasn't happened to any great degree. Coach Charles Farmer, Twin Falls, had the bulk of his basketball team there. There were several other area coaches at the game. But they didn't bring their players.

Over the years Magic Valley has produced many good basketball players, even one that made All-American. Each year it has another couple that grab the local fancy.

Yet in their first season CSI's Eagles have proved that being the best basketball player in Magic Valley does not necessarily make a boy a likely college prospect. We would venture an opinion that Magic Valley has never produced as complete a basketball player as CSI has in Humes.

There are those "fans" in Magic Valley who decry the heavy reliance on out-of-state boys for success this year. Don't think CSI didn't try to get a bunch out of this area. We know that six were offered scholarships before Coach Sutton was named coach and five—one had already signed—after his appointment.

It was a case of the grass being greener elsewhere, the boys thought. They didn't want to go to CSI. Of them all, only Fred Trenkle, Shoshone, threw his lot with the locals. He'll play as experience and confidence come but he won't crack the first string tomorrow.

Last spring we talked to the coaches of five of the boys that eventually were offered assistance. The first one said: "I wouldn't want the boy to go to that school if he had to go without an education. He can play for a lot of teams better than that one will be."

At that time we could only answer like "you might be surprised," because we didn't know how good it was going to get. Right now that coach should be aware that his boy wasn't good enough to make the starting team.

Another told us "I wouldn't even talk to the boy about going there."

The trouble was not in the coaches or in the fans. It was a simple case of not being able to compare, man for man, move for move, against boys that already had made the grade.

This is not written with the intention of demeaning local talent. This area can provide material that will help CSI—and boys CSI can help. Area coaches can be excused for taking a prejudiced stand on behalf of their charges.

There is, however, no excuse for the area not supporting CSI's team this year, particularly in major games like North Idaho JC. Sports fans are supposed to like watching the competition. CSI is providing some of the best right now.

Giants Trade Two Hurlers For Another

WASHINGTON (AP) — The San Francisco Giants traded pitcher Bob Priddy and outfielder Cap Peterson to the Washington Senators for pitcher Mike McCormick, the Senators announced Tuesday night.

McCormick, 27, had a 11-14 record with Washington last season. He has been a major leaguer for 11 seasons.

In 1960, he led the National League in earned run average with 2.70.

He was an all-state basketball and baseball player at Mark Keppel High School in Alhambra, Calif. The New York Giants signed him for a large bonus in 1956.

The 6-2, 195-pounder attended Bakersfield College.

Peterson, who has been with the Giants since 1963, batted .237 in 89 games last season, mostly as a pinch hitter. He hit two home runs and drove in 19 runs.

Priddy came to the Giants from Pittsburgh in 1965 in a trade involving catcher Del Crandall. He appeared in 38 games with the Giants last season, starting three, and compiled a 6-3 record with a 4.04 earned run average.

Torres Thinks Only Of Clay

KIAMESHA LAKE, N.Y. (AP) — Jose Torres doesn't defend his light heavyweight championship against Dick Tiger until Friday, but already Torres is talking about meeting Cassius Clay.

"I'm real serious about going after Clay," Torres said Monday here at his training headquarters for the Madison Square Garden fight.

"If I can knock out Tiger that will help me both for the Fighter of the Year award and for a shot at Clay."

76ers Trounce Knicks 127-112

NEW YORK (AP) — The Philadelphia 76ers parlayed the shooting of Billy Cunningham and the rebounding of Wilt Chamberlain into a runaway 127-112 victory over the New York Knickerbockers Tuesday night in the second game of a National Basketball Association doubleheader.

In the first game Kevin Loughery and Wayne Hightower sparked a second period Baltimore rally and the Bullets went on to crush the Chicago Bulls 122 - 94.

Patterson To Meet Spencer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The co-managers of Thad Spencer said Tuesday the San Francisco heavyweight will fight former champion Floyd Patterson in Stockholm, Sweden, on Jan. 21.

Nate Cohn and Willie Ketchum, who handle Spencer, said the indoor bout is expected to draw $150,000.

New York Pro Football Teams Are Back In Title Races--More Or Less

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

New York's pro football buffs, who counted themselves out of the American and National league title races weeks ago, can count themselves back in this weekend.

Although the Jets are going nowhere and the Giants have been there for sometime, each club may hold the key to its league's Eastern Division championship prize.

The Jets, whose hopes for an unprecedented winning season evaporated at San Diego last Sunday, take on the Boston Patriots, pace-setters in the AFL's Eastern race, at Shea Stadium Saturday. The Pats need either a victory or tie to lock up the division crown.

The Giants, most scored-upon club in NFL history, wind up their lastingest season Sunday when they entertain the explosive Dallas Cowboys at Yankee Stadium. The Cowboys can wrap up the Eastern Conference title before they take the field if Cleveland beats second-place St. Louis Saturday.

But a Cardinal victory would give the fallen Giants a shot at sidetracking Dallas' title express. The Cowboys then would have to either beat or tie New York to clinch their first division championship since they entered the NFL six years ago.

The Cowboys, with the highest scoring offense in the league, rate three-touchdown favorites over New York, which has yielded a record 494 points in sliding to a 1-11-1 season mark.

The Jets, 5-6-2, are six-point underdogs against the Patriots, 8-3-2, who have dropped only one of their last 10 starts.

The Patriots, who lead Buffalo's defending AFL champs by one-half game in the Eastern stretch race, expect Gino Cappelletti, the league's scoring leader, to be ready for full-time duty. Cappelletti nursed a bruised thigh through last Sunday's 38-14 victory at Houston.

Dallas, the NFL's Eastern crown within its grasp last Sunday, bowed to Washington 34-31. Quarterback Don Meredith, injured in the second period against the Redskins, should be ready to call signals against the Giants, who were drubbed by Pittsburgh 47-28 last Sunday.

Elsewhere Sunday, Green Bay's Western Division kings visit Los Angeles, Baltimore is at San Francisco, Minnesota at Chicago, Philadelphia at Washington and Pittsburgh at Atlanta in NFL play; Denver at Buffalo, Houston at Miami and Kansas City, the Western Division champion, at San Diego in the AFL.

Nebraska Nips WSU By 80-78

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Two free throws by Ron Simmons with 38 seconds left gave Nebraska an 80-78 basketball win over Washington State Tuesday night and a sweep of the two-game series. The Huskers beat the Cougars 100-75 in the opener.

A bad pass gave the ball to Nebraska with 1:40 left and the Huskers began to play for a last second shot, but Simmons was fouled by Lennie Allen and sank his one-and-one shots for the win.

Coeur d'Alene Begins Season At Top Of Idaho Prep Rankings

By The Associated Press

Turn 16 voters loose after two weeks of action, tell them to pick the 10 best cage teams in Idaho, and what happens? They select 32 ball clubs for honors and it becomes a touch situation to separate the men from the boys. This is the first 1966-67 Associated Press basketball poll and the 16 sportswriters and sportscasters selected six teams for No. 1 honors, but when the final point was added it turned up the Coeur d'Alene Vikings as the pinnacle club on the strength of seven first place votes and 126 total points. Borah's Lions, the state's No. 1 club in 1965-66 and A-1 champions, nailed down the runnerup slot.

The Idaho Falls Tigers were voted third and Boise High rated fourth.

Rounding out the top 10 were Caldwell in seventh, Moscow eighth, Skyline of Idaho Falls, ninth and Bonneville's Bees tenth.

Leading the second 10 was Capital, followed by Twin Falls, Pocatello and Soda Springs (tied 13th), Blackfoot, Sugar Salem, American Falls, Nampa, Emmett, Buhl and Deary.

The 32 teams listed broke the old first poll record of 29 in 1964-65.

Several league games are on tap for this weekend prior to the annual holiday break and it should prove a good criterion for the voters for next week's balloting.

Following is the first 1966-67 Idaho Associated Press basketball poll voted on by sports writers and sportscasters over the state. First place votes and records (where possible) in parenthesis. Ballots rated on 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis.

UCLA Coach Says Alcindor Not Protected

LOS ANGELES (AP)—UCLA basketball Coach John Wooden says his skyscraper center, Lew Alcindor, got rough treatment in the Bruins' first three games.

"He is not getting the protection he should get and the protection normal players get," Wooden told sportswriters Monday. "There have been some atrocious things. On out-of-bounds plays, men stand next to him with their hands all over him."

Sophomore Alcindor, 7-1½, scored 113 points in the games against Southern California and Duke.

Wooden indicated that referees are inclined to look at the ball, sometimes held aloft by Alcindor, so it's out of the opposition's reach, instead of at contact being made with the young giant.

"They hold him down a little by body contact," said Wooden. "I have a film of the games and, if I put together some of the things I've seen, I could run a pretty good strip of it."

The Bruins don't play until Dec. 22 when they host Colorado State.

EASY VICTORY

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP — The University of Louisville, with substitutes playing much of the game, cruised to an easy 107-55 basketball victory over Tampa Tuesday night.

Chiefs Maintain Statistic Edge

NEW YORK (AP) — Kansas City maintained its lead in both total offense and rushing in the American Football League, according to statistics released by the league today.

The Chiefs have averaged 363.8 yards in total offense and 152.3 in rushing. New York leads in passing, with 244.4.

Oakland leads in total defense with 278.3, but has allowed opponents just two-tenths of a yard per game less than Kansas City.

gram of the Community Church will be held at 7 p.m. Sunday, in lieu of the evening service.

The program will include both the cherub and junior choirs, according to Rev. W. James Post. There will be recitations, dialogues and stories by the Sunday School classes from beginners through the high school age groups.

The Prairie Schooners couples's club will be meeting Wednesday evening at the church to make popcorn balls and fill the treat sacks to be given out Sunday night. They also will decorate the church.

The Senior High School youth group held a service Sunday afternoon at the T. B. hospital at Gooding. Mrs. Keith Strom directed the group in a 3-act play. The play was repeated for the evening service at the church.

Youths Will Present Play At Kimberly

KIMBERLY — The Kimberly Methodist Sunday School classes will present a Christmas play, "Christmas in Customs," by Shirley Ann Lockhart, at 7 p.m. Sunday at the church.

All the children from the nursery through the sixth grade will participate. The junior choir and the regular choir will sing throughout the program.

"Miss Tradition" will be played by Jan Brown and Dennis Pettygrove will be the Bible reader, with senior high students participating. Other senior high students will sing in the choir.

Treats will be given to the children during a fellowship hour after the program, and refreshments will be served to the older guests.

Mrs. Marion Simpson is the director. Mrs. Jane McElroy is the junior choir director, and Mrs. Robert Denton is the pianist.

SERVICES CANCELED

SHOSHONE — There will be no services at the Assembly of God Church Sunday as the membership will attend the Christmas Cantata being presented at the Baptist Church during the regular worship service time.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Under American prodding, South Viet Nam finally is undertaking a program to improve leadership in its armed forces.

These Americans have charged that substandard field leadership has been responsible for lack of aggressiveness and initiative, and ineffectiveness of many Vietnamese units.

He drew up a formal note to the Vietnamese command expressing his concern. The Westmoreland memo started ma-

port-import business, and observers consider this an indication that the former dictator has abandoned plans to return to Argentina.

BRIDGE BY JACOBY

EARLY TRUMP LEAD DEFEATS

Jim: "When I was learning bridge I remember that you insisted that any time I was declarer at a trump contract my first thought would be about dummy's trumps and that I should not play even one round if I might need that trump later on."

Oswald: "If I had taught that to South he would have made today's hand. He won the club to the ace, South made a valiant effort. He led his jack of diamonds and continued with a second diamond after East ducked. East led a second trump and South went up with his ace. Then he entered dummy with the remaining top club, discarded his losing club on the high diamond. Then he tried the spade finesse. It lost to West. West cashed his queen of trumps, led back the jack of spades and waited for his second spade trick."

Jim: "Had South started diamonds at trick two things would have gone about the same way except that West would never get the chance to lead his third trump and South would have been able to ruff his six of spades."

Oswald: "This hand also illustrates the old theory that when both sides play the same suit one of them is crazy. This time South was crazy and East and West smart."

THE STORY OF THE NATIVITY

By JOHN J. STEWART

"My Soul Doth Magnify the Lord"

It was natural that Mary, the youthful mother-to-be, should feel the need of someone in whom she could confide.

It was not for her to make public the sacred trust she had received from God. Nor was it likely that her story would be believed were she to tell it.

Her mission, though glorious, would not be an easy one. But no personal sacrifice was too great in the service of God.

When he appeared to her, the Angel Gabriel had also told her, "Behold thy cousin Elizabeth hath conceived a son in her old age. And this is the sixth month with her, who was barren. For with God nothing is impossible."

Elizabeth, her revered cousin, was to give birth to him who would be a forerunner to Mary's own divine Son. Elizabeth, as Mary herself, was engaged in the fulfillment of God's holy purposes.

Yes, that was the answer. Mary would go to Elizabeth, a woman "righteous before God . . . blameless." Elizabeth would understand. Mary could confide in her.

Elizabeth and Zacharias her husband lived in a town near Jerusalem, a hundred miles south of Nazareth. It would be a long journey, but surely God would bless and protect her.

As Mary reached Elizabeth's home, the older woman received a manifestation of Mary's mission, and when Mary greeted her, Elizabeth exclaimed:

"Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb! And whence is this, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? At the sound of thy voice, the babe I carry leaped in my womb for joy!"

Elizabeth's words brought tears of joy to Mary's eyes. All the anxiety and emotional strain she had felt, all the wearlness of the journey, vanished for the moment.

The happiness, the gratitude, the devotion that had been pent up in her bosom since her divine calling she now poured out in a rapture of praise to God:

"My soul doth magnify the Lord. And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior. For He hath regarded the low estate of His handmaiden, for from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. For He that is mighty hath done to me great things, and holy is His name. And His mercy is on them who love Him, from generation to generation . . ."

Reds May Be Improving Their ICBMs

By SEYMOUR M. HERSH

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union may be on the verge of a massive program to improve the capability of its intercontinental ballistic missiles, Pentagon sources indicated.

The basic Soviet aim apparently would be to introduce multiple independently guided, nuclear warheads — each capable of carrying a nuclear device of at least one-megaton yield — into its presently expanding fleet of ICBMs.

The United States similarly has been conducting research into a multiple-warhead system that reportedly is being considered for a number of applications including the new Minuteman 3 and the Poseidon ICBMs now under development.

The Soviet program, if successfully developed, could have the effect of neutralizing or outweighing any offensive advantages the United States would accrue by installing multiple warheads on its new ICBMs.

Details of the reported Soviet program were outlined Tuesday in Technology Week, an authoritative journal on rocket and missile affairs. An earlier article in Missile and Space Daily, another technical journal, hinted of the development, but said there was no conclusive evidence.

Pentagon officials were reluctant to discuss the articles — "the whole area is very sensitive," said one source — but the officials also made it clear they were not in a position to refute them.

If the Soviet Union has successfully developed a multiple warhead for the ICBM fleet, the impact on U.S. strategic planning would be immense.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced last week that the Soviet Union is planning to deploy more long-range missiles than earlier U.S. intelligence estimates had indicated.

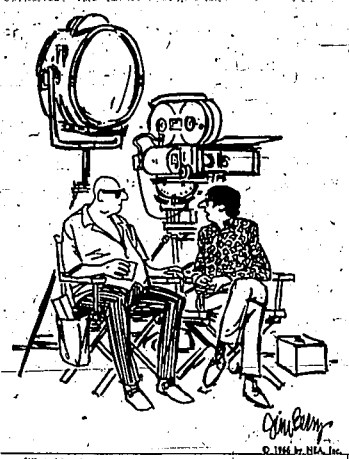

He emphasized, however, that the United States still maintains a numerical advantage in ICBMs of about 3-to-1. He added that this country will "continue to have a substantial quantitative and qualitative superiority" over the U.S.S.R. for at least another 18 months, even with its present ICBM arsenal.

Latest Pentagon figures show there are about 1,630 ICBMs in the current U.S. storehouse. The Soviet Union reportedly has about 600 now but may be able to deploy as many as 850 long-range missiles by 1968.

But if its missiles were equipped with multiple nuclear warheads, this would amount to a major qualitative increase in its ICBM arsenal and could pose a serious challenge to the effectiveness of the proposed Nike-X antimissile defense system.

The Soviet development apparently consists of warheads carried aboard a mother vehicle and dispersed after re-entry. A complicated control system would enable the warheads to be ejected at prescribed velocity and altitude after the ICBM's last stage had been spent.

Tax Boost Would Face Opposition

By JIM ADAMS

BOISE (AP) — Any increase in Idaho's gasoline tax will face stiff opposition in the 1967 Legislature. But most lawmakers favoring a boost think it should be a full cent per gallon.

Nearly half the legislators answering an Associated Press survey were against hiking the tax. About a fourth favored it and the rest were undecided or said maybe.

"It depends on what it would be used for," said Rep. Gladys Swank, D-Lewiston. She said she would favor more funds for "realigning a north-south highway for better communication between the two sections of the state."

Rep. Ellis Johnson, R-Preston, said the tax should be increased as much as necessary for a progressive highway construction program that would attract more industry.

Rep. George F. Brocke Sr., D-Kendrick, suggested needed money come from the sales tax on cars, trucks, tires and vehicle accessories.

Several legislators said one purpose of the tax increase would be to raise state matching money for more federal funds—so the increase may not be needed now that federal funds may be cut.

The Federal Bureau of Public Roads has announced it may cut aid by $70 billion next year — $4.6 million in Idaho — to curb inflationary pressures.

The highway department has prepared studies on several alternatives for legislators to study, and a gasoline increase is one of them.

Although most legislators favoring the tax increase thought it should be a penny a gallon, two said it should be no more than one-half cent.

Johnson's Re-Election Chances Eyed

By C.J. SCHOENER

NEW YORK (AP) — Barry Goldwater said today President Johnson would be re-elected if he ran today, but if the "downtrend of his popularity" continues, he might decline to run again in 1968.

Goldwater, Republican presidential nominee who was beaten badly by Johnson in 1964, said he thinks "that if the President's popularity continues to go down and hits a record low he will remove himself and find life in Texas more enticing."

He said former Vice President Richard M. Nixon is "best equipped for the job of president" and would be nominated if the Republican convention were held today.

Goldwater told a news conference that the "continued downtrend of the popularity of the present administration" was the "most important factor" in the GOP's presidential chances two years hence.

During the interview, Goldwater:

—Advocated sealing the North Vietnam port of Haiphong by sinking shallow-draft vessels in the narrow channel leading to the harbor.

—Asserted "I'm a strong believer in Richard Nixon — he's best equipped for the job of president because of his eight years as vice president and deep knowledge of foreign affairs, particularly in Asia."

—Contended that "if Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama chooses to run on a third-party ticket in 1968 he will pretty well assure the re-election of President Johnson."

160 Class Rings Of Dead Soldiers Displayed At West Point Library

By JEAN HELLER

WEST POINT, N.Y (AP) — One was at San Juan Hill, another at Corregidor and another in Viet Nam. One never left The Plain.

Today, they share a common home, a field of blue velvet behind glass at the United States Military Academy. They are class rings, and they span a century of American history; a century of American heroes.

Many are so severely worn, with stones so badly chipped and cracked that the seal is no longer legible. Some are on public display at the school's museum. Others are in the school's library, to which the public is not admitted.

There was Dennis Mahan Michie, who enrolled at West Point in 1888 and almost immediately began trying to convince academy officials that the school needed a football team. He got the team, was its captain and—while he was still a cadet—was the team's first coach.

And then came the Spanish-American War. Michie landed as a first lieutenant with the 11th Infantry on the shores of Cuba and, on June 1, 1898, Michie and more than 8,000 other soldiers made the famous charge up San Juan Hill.

Michie never returned. But his class ring did, to a place of honor in the West Point Museum. And the academy's football field is named Michie Stadium in his memory.

General of the Army Douglas MacArthur's ring is there, too. It was with him when he inspired his outmanned, poorly equipped troops at Luzon. It fell back with him to Bataan and then to Corregidor.

And it went with him to Australia when he received orders from President Franklin D. Roosevelt to leave the Philippines as the Japanese pressed relentlessly to capture them.

"I shall return," he vowed. And he did — in October, 1944.

Also there is the ring that belonged to Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, Class of 1906, the man-history and MacArthur left in the Philippines to fight for the precious time the United States needed to prepare to strike back.

James P. Sprulli got his ring and his commission from West Point in June, 1954. Eight years later, as a captain, he was in Viet Nam.

From 1962 to 1964, he wrote a series of letters to his wife and children, letters which were cheerful and optimistic.

Sprulli wrote that he had great confidence in the little people of the tiny, war-racked country, confidence that they could and would survive.

But he didn't.

"Chin up! See you soon," he wrote home early in 1964.

And then he was dead. And in West Point's library display, Capt. Sprulli's ring has as prominent a display as MacArthur's and Wainwright's and Michie's.

In all, there are about 160 rings in the two displays, plus one set of cufflinks from the Class of 1879, designed for use instead of a class ring that year.

Class rings were first worn at the academy in 1835, but as yet, the display holds no representative from that class. There were no class rings in 1836, but the cadets resumed the practice the following year.

There are examples from nearly all the classes since then, each with the unique design of the class that wore it.

According to one former cadet, now an Army lieutenant colonel: "The rings cost at least $75, but the heritage they represent and the pride with which they are worn is priceless."

Sleeping Giant Of Copper Industry Stirs With Promise

By JIM ELLIOTT

TYRONE, N.M. (AP) — This sleeping giant of the century's early copper industry is stirring with the promise of a multimillion-dollar awakening.

Tyrone's orderly array of buildings and its white, moorish-style railroad station were set at the foot of Burro Mountain during a copper boom that started in 1915. It crashed six years later when the price of copper fell.

Phelps Dodge Corp. abandoned its underground mining operation; but continued to maintain much of the town's buildings, with the help of a few residents who remained in Tyrone. The town has attracted tourists, artists and lens fans through the years.

Now Phelps-Dodge plans to spend more than $100 million to reactivate the town in preparation for an open-pit mining operation. Residents of Grant County are excited about the promise of a new major employer.

The company said that when the mine is in operation, there will be about 1,100 men on the payroll. The resulting demand for trades and services could create thousands of other jobs in the area.

Phelps-Dodge says it will take three to four years to construct facilities and get the mine into full production. There will be the task of bringing water from the nearby Gila River and building railroad track, probably from Separ, near Lordsburg, on the Southern Pacific line. The ore will be shipped to a smelter at Douglas, Ariz.

Phelps-Dodge maintenance of Tyrone included leaving a few dwellings on the crest of a ridge, renting them through the years. A post office has remained in the company's principal building along with offices for the property manager.

The mining proprety itself has not been allowed to revert to rangeland. Copper leaching operations were carried on during World War II. In the 1950s, the company embarked on an extensive development program, gouging out a network of roads through the red hills, and conducting core-drilling operations that aroused hopes of an early mine reactivation at the time.

Soviet Union Moves Up As Naval Power

By THOMAS A. REEDY

LONDON (AP) — The Soviet Union has moved up behind the United States as the world's second naval power and is pressing Japan for merchant marine leadership.

These conclusions are reached by Jane's Fighting Ships, the accepted authority on maritime affairs, in its report for 1966-67.

Facts collected by the 69-year-old organization show that while the Soviet Union has no aircraft carriers, it outstrips the United States in conventional submarines. The U.S.S.R. lags in nuclear-powered submarines, however.

American naval power is there for all to see because of the war in Vietnam, said Jane's, while the Soviet Union is "blatantly flaunting its numerical and intrinsic fleet strength."

"Wherever there is navigable water, the Soviet navy has warships or paramilitary ships," said Jane's.

A 20-year-program by the Soviet Union now has culminated in "matching submarines, cruisers, destroyers, escorts, support ships, minesweepers, guided missile patrol boats, oilers, store carriers and electronic surveillance scouts, using fishing trawlers, with anything that the other major naval powers can produce."

Jane's estimated Soviet strength at 40 nuclear-powered submarines, 340 conventional submarines, 20 cruisers, 110 destroyers, 100 escorts, 300 coastal escorts, 300 minesweepers, 100 missile patrol boats, 350 motor torpedo boats, and 200 landing craft.

The United States is aiming for an entirely nuclear-powered fleet by the 1970s, and meantime has a force of 3,400 units.

These include four battleships in commission, 60 carriers of types that can be used, 100 submarines, 38 heavy and light cruisers, 970 destroyers or escorts, 220 mine-laying and minesweeping vessels plus hundreds of service boats that include high-speed monitors now in use off the shores of Vietnam.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

by STELLA

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 14—Born today, you're given to emotional outbursts which at times reduce the effectiveness of your thinking or behavior drastically. You need surroundings that are harmonious with your basic character and you need companions who both complement and supplement your own character traits. You should not try to limit your friends to only one type for, if you do, you will only grow more and more set in your particular emotional pattern.

You have great energy and a vast store of talent. Although the arts attract your interest, it is in the world of business that you can actually make your mark. For here lies both real fascination and a place where you can continuously bring into play all your know-how and determination. Only learn to control the emotional side of your nature and success will most certainly be yours.

Undemanding and uncritical of those of whom you are particularly fond, it may be that you are too easily satisfied and pleased with friends and loved ones. It may even be that you have allowed costly errors to occur simply because of your live-and-let-live policy toward members of your intimate circle. Learn to demand of all what you demand of the few.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Thursday, December 15

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — A good balance between mental and physical activity should see you through this day successfully. Seek aid from associates.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) — Don't be dismayed should a bright morning fade into a hazy afternoon. These are days when neither mood nor temper remains stable.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — The wise Aquarius will take advantage of an opportunity to advance his technical knowledge. His career may be at stake.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 21) — Keep to a sensible middle course of action and you should be able to steer around any obstacles put in your way.

ARIES (March 22-April) — Explain your aims to those who can be of service to you. Don't be afraid to enter into direct relationship with benefactors.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21) — A good beginning could well be spoiled by over-excited response on your part. Take both good and ill for no more than they're worth.

GEMINI (May 22-June 22) — Keep business on an upward trend but by no means attempt to exploit another in your effort to do so. Rely on wisdom of associates.

CANCER (June 23-July 23) — Your best gains are made through attention to small matters today. Don't be afraid to say no to another's pleas.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — For best results make your petition in writing. Choose your words with care and rely on an imaginative turn of phrase.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — Take the initiative when it comes to studying production methods. You can gain your own career advantage.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — Pursue your goal from a personal standpoint and leave the business approach to others for the time being. Gains by evening.

Slacks Edict Wins Little Favor At BYU

PROVO, Utah (AP) — Reaction at Brigham Young University Tuesday was generally against an administration edict forbidding coeds to wear slacks in recreation areas of the Student Union Building.

Lyle Curtis, BYU student coordinator, said girls will not be permitted to wear slacks in game areas, in the hobby shop or while bowling.

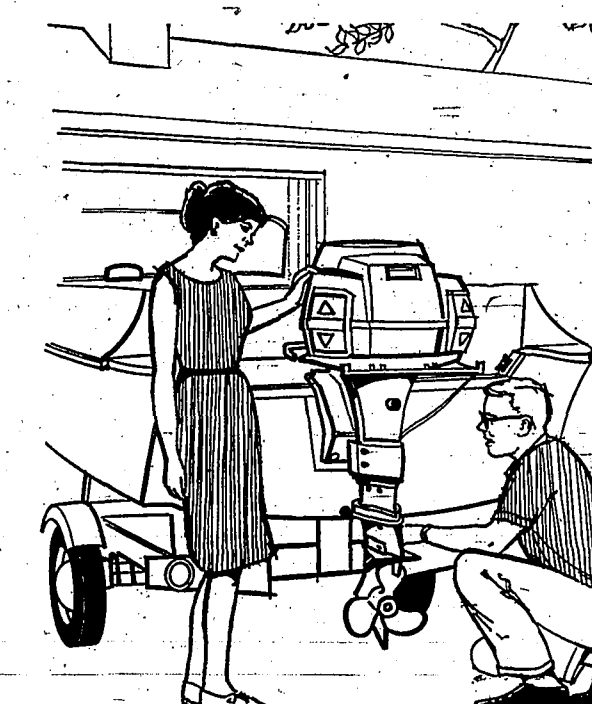

He said a "mother hubbard-type of apron" has been devised for girls working in the hobby shop.

"BYU dress standards policy," he said, "has always been that slacks are not appropriate for girls anywhere on campus."

Curtis said coeds wearing slacks in the games area had violated the policy by sometimes "wandering" to other areas of the Student Union.

"I think it's ridiculous," said Donna Gregory, a junior from Ogden, Utah. "After all, men make up most of these rules and they've never had to wear a girdle. Slacks are comfortable."

Picture your pleasure skimming across the water with your own outboard motor. This happy couple is getting set for the first of many trips to the lake to enjoy the like-new outboard which they were able to purchase the easy way — through a Want Ad.

Happy, too, are the previous owners. They were able to sell the no-longer used outboard motor for cash the easy way — through a low cost Want Ad.

FELIZ NATAL
MERRY CHRISTMAS
Free Colored Brochure

Say Merry Christmas in a really big way. Give a truly meaningful gift for Christmas. Give a share in the world's future. Brazil, South America is probably the fastest rising country economically in the world today. Rich farmlands as yet unplanted will prove to be the world's bread basket of tomorrow. Here is land that will grow almost anything from citrus fruits to nuts and including vegetables, rice, wheat, corn, fruits, soybeans, etc. Plenty of water — annual rainfall 58", wonderful climate—temperature range from a low of 50 degrees to a high of 85 degrees the year around. Pioneer your own farm and help give Christmas to yourself, and your family, and the hungry world. Our land is only 400 miles north of Brasilia, the new capital of Brazil, South America. Each farm is surveyed and staked. We record the deeds for you and you get a copy thereof. All titles are free and clear—no restrictions. Say, "Feliz Natal" (Merry Christmas) in a really big way. We have 750 farms at 500 acres each to sell at $1100 each (total price), $125 down, $33 per month. Beautiful, interesting, free colored brochure giving complete details sent upon request. Selig Bros. Real Estate Co., 42 W. South Street, Indianapolis, Indiana. Telephone: Area Code 317, 634-8328 or residence phone, Area Code 317, 283-1256. We are members of Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce.

HOW TO WRITE A GOOD CLASSIFIED WANT AD

1—IT'S ALWAYS BEST to start your advertisement with the name of the article or service you have to offer. If you have an apartment or room for rent or property for sale start your advertisement with the location.

2—BE CLEAR. Readers respond more quickly and favorably when given complete or definite information. One of the very most important aspects of any advertisement is to include the price.

3—MAKE IT EASY for the reader-prospect to reach you. Always insert your telephone number or your name and address. If you do not have regular hours, give a preferred time to have prospects contact you.

4—THE GREATEST READER ATTENTION can be secured for your advertisement by using consecutive insertions. Play safe—a seven-day order is best and costs less! There are also very special monthly rates for those who are desirous of keeping their name and offering before the public every day. You can stop your ad in the event of results, and then you pay only for the days it is published.

5—PLACE YOURSELF in the reader's position and ask yourself what you would like to know (about your offer). The answer you give will make a good Classified Ad.

6—CLASSIFIED readers are already interested in buying your used or new merchandise. These people have the money and are already in the market to buy. So give them every advantage you can with good ad copy.

7—WANT ADS THAT FAIL to bring satisfaction do so, not through any lack of readership, but because they are often carelessly worded and do not contain enough information to get prompt action.

8—TO PLACE YOUR ADVERTISEMENT in the Twin Falls newspaper, where you reach the greatest Classified Want Ad audience in Magic Valley, call 733-0931 or one of the Times-News' free phone numbers if you live in an area outside Twin Falls and ask for an Ad-taker. It's as easy as calling a friend because our Ad-takers are schooled to be helpful in such matters. Remember, you get 7 days for the price of 5.
